...SIDER

...s, Steam Evaporators, and all other ... Sturtevant & Boericke Press ... New York. Factory, Syracuse, N.Y.

...LLION COPIES SOLD.

...DY WANTS IT!

EVERYBODY NEEDS IT!

...THYSELF.

...nfirmities that result from indiscretion ... may be alleviated and cured. Those ... assertion should purchase the new ... published by the PEABODY MEDICAL ... Boston, entitled THE SCIENCE OF ... SELF-PRESERVATION. Ex... ...ture, Nervous and Physical Debility, ... like in Man, or Vitality Impaired by ... with, or too close application to busi... ...ected and marriage contemplated. ... revised and enlarged, just published, ... the best work, the best in the Eng... written by a ... scientific man of great experi... ...was awarded a gold and jeweled ...National Medical Association. It con... ...and very expensive engravings. 300 ...pages, 125 valuable prescriptions for all ...forms, acute and chronic, the result of ...extensive and successful practice. ...which is worth ten times the price of ...it, and is bound in beautiful French cloth, em... ...Price only $1.25, by mail, postpaid, ... price. Illustrated sample 6 cents.

...NCE OF LIFE; OR, SELF-PRESERVATION.

...comparison the most extraordinary ...work ever published. There is nothing ...to the married or single can either re... ...know but what is fully explained.—

...NCE OF LIFE; OR, SELF-PRESERVATION.

...and beauty, warranted to be a bet... ...in every sense than can be obtained ...for the price, or the money will be ...instances. ...and MIDDLE AGED MEN can save ...suffering and expense by reading the ...or consulting with the author, who ...lies on all diseases requiring skill and ...address

...Y MEDICAL INSTITUTE, ...W. H. PARKER, M. D., ...Street, Boston, Mass.

...Merchant's ...GLING OIL ...INIMENT

...human, fowl and animal flesh, was ...prepared and introduced by Dr. ...W. Merchant, in Lockport N. Y., ...A. 1838, since which time it has ...idly grown in public favor, and is ...acknowledged and admitted by the ...s to be the standard liniment of the ...ntry. When we make this announce... ...we do so without fear of contra... ...notwithstanding we are aware ...are many who are more or less ...judiced against proprietary remedies ...cially on account of the many humbugs on the market, however, we are ...ased to state that such prejudice does ...inst GARGLING OIL. We do not ...or miracles for our Liniment, but we ...without an equal. It is put up in bottles of three sizes, and all we ask is that you give it a fair trial, remembering that the Oil put up with white wrapper (small) is for human and fowl flesh, and that with yellow wrapper (three sizes) for animal flesh.

...ry a bottle.

...rs indicate, the Oil is used successfully in diseases of the human, fowl and animal ...well before using.

Cannot be Disputed.

One of the principal reasons of the wonderful success of Merchant's Gargling Oil is this: it is manufactured strictly on honor. Its proprietors do not, as is the case with too many, aftermarking for their medicines name, diminutive properties by using inferior commodities the very best goods to be bought in the market, regardless of cost. For half a century Merchant's Gargling Oil has been a synonym for honesty, and will continue to be so, long as time endures. For ...sale by all respectable dealers ...United States and other countries.

Our testimonials date from 1838 ...to the present. Try Merchant's Gargling Oil Liniment for internal ...and external use, and tell your ...neighbor what good it has done.

...follow directions. Keep the bottle

...rns and Scalds, Sprains and Bruises, ...alds, Stringhalt, Windgalls, ...t Bites, Foot lost in Sheep, ...Grease, Foundered Feet, ...ts, Roup in Poultry, ...ors, Sore Nipples, Garb, ...Evil, Cracked Heels, Old Sores, ...alls, Epizootic, Lame Back, ...rors, Hemorrhoids or Piles, ...Sciatica, Rheumatism, ...Ulcers, Sycamey, ...Ears, Corns, Whitlows, ...Weakness of the Joints, ...ness, Contraction of Muscles, ...er, Cramps, Swelled Legs, ...ditton, Fistula, Mange, Tumors, ...Udder, Caked Breasts, Boils, &c.

...REWARD for proof of the existence of a better liniment than "Merchant's Gargling Oil," or a better worm medicine than "Merchant's Worm Tablets." Manufactured by M. G. O. Co., Lockport, N. Y., U. S. A.

JOHN HODGE, Sec'y.

Wanted for DAYS of the ...N of MAN. ...h's Great WORK Just Out. ...ears of patient study and travel. A book to ...y, detain, fascinate, instruct the student at home ...The style is elegant and forcible; the illustrations ...Finely and appropriately illustrated. ...Commended by the press and clergy. Will ...Have Opportunity for Ladies. Ministers, ...and all others wishing lasting employment. ...ADDRESS HUBBARD & CO., Philadelphia, Pa.

GOOD NEWS ...TO ...LADIES!

Get up Clubs for our CELEBRATED TEAS, and secure a beautiful "White Rose or Gold Band Tea Set" (44 pieces), our own importation. One of these beautiful Tea Sets given away ...with a Club for $15.00. Beware of the so-called ...Teas that are being advertised—they are dangerous ...to health—slow poison. Dealers only with reliable ...first hands if possible. No humbug.

...The American Tea Co., Importers, ...31 & 33 VESEY ST., New York.

...in your own town. Terms and $5 outfit free. Address H. HALLETT & Co., Portland, Maine.

...LE IN MILANO. ...S. R. la Regina, ...Conservatorio.

...MUSICAL EXPOSITION ...DINARY COLLECTION OF MUSICAL ...the great premises which has been ...Prizes. After exhaustive examinations ...more than 350 Awards were ...pondence affained in the various ...CULTY, including Organs and Har...

...EDAL, ...as conferred upon the ORGANS,

...be highly because of the importance of ...IAL COMPETITION IN A COUNTRY ...honored by special exhibition before ...their Majesties the King and Queen ...for fourteen years these Organs ...Organs which have received such at once ...have introduced improvements of ...since the introduction of the American ...ly, surpassing in capacity and excellence, and certainly worthy to be ...ed as the Organs of solid BLACK WALNUT CASES, $360, $390, $480, $520, $540 ...recent improvements, and adapted to ...Organ cases, are at $22, $26, $27. ...payments, or will be rented until rent ...

...describing and illustrating MORE ...ED STYLES OF ORGANS, with net cash prices. Certainly no one should buy or rent without information about organs.

...PIANO CO., ...ORK: 149 Wabash Avenue, CHICAGO.

Oxford County Advertiser.

VOL. XIII. NORWAY AND SOUTH PARIS, ME., FRIDAY, JULY 21, 1882. NO. 29.

ENGLAND AGAINST EGYPT.

The Alexandrian Bombardment.

Free Sample Copy. You are hereby invited to become a regular subscriber of this paper. Terms, 4 months, 50 cents, one year, $1.50 cash in advance.

...Tu... ...the defences of Alexandria had been most carefully prepared in every respect; all the preliminaries becoming to the occasion had been complied with; and the Egyptians had been notified of the exact hour at which the bombardment would be begun in case they remained contumacious and refused to conform to the British demands.

It was at about seven o'clock in the morning, Alexandria time (or seven hours later than the time indicated by the clocks of New York), that fire was opened upon the forts by eight of the most powerful ironclads in the British navy, armed with the most formidable guns in the world, including the 81-ton guns about whose operation there has been so much interest. The Egyptian batteries replied at once, and the cannonading proceeded from both sides. Within two hours two or three of the forts were silenced, many guns had been dismounted, and the Egyptian fire grew slack.

By midday four of the forts had been blown up, and soon afterward it appeared that all the exposed guns had been dismounted. In the afternoon the operations from the fleet, and of course those from the shore, were less active; by six o'clock all the forts, with two exceptions, had been silenced, and shortly before seven o'clock the action, which had lasted just about twelve hours, closed for the day.

The Egyptians had worked their batteries with pertinacity and pluck through the day; but we do not know what damage was inflicted upon the British armored ships, though it is admitted that they were often struck by the Egyptian artillerists. According to a dispatch read in the House of Commons, the British loss in men was five killed and twenty-seven wounded.

At one period of the action the British brought dynamite into play with destructive effect, a party of twelve having landed at one of the forts under cover of the fleet and destroyed with dynamite the heavy guns that had been operated there by the Egyptians.

The Herald correspondent on board the Invincible says: The smoke from the very commencement of the engagement was so dense that we could see nothing of the effect which our fire was producing, nor of what the enemy was doing. But soon after we began a sharp scream overhead, followed by the upleaping of a column of spray to seaward, as the shots struck the water made it clear that the enemy were replying to our iron salute. Some orders were passed to cease firing until the smoke cleared away.

Wind and sun were both in the enemy's favor, and it was some time before the veil lifted sufficiently for even a glimpse of the shore, and this was lost in an instant. The guns again opened fire, and nothing could be seen from the deck. Mr. Hardy, midshipman, posted in the maintop, signalled the direction of the stroke of the shells, and the accuracy of the firing improved. Meantime the enemy's shots were coming thick and fast, their aim being directed chiefly against the Penelope and Inflexible. They were firing principally round shot.

Twenty minutes after the first gun our foreroyal braces were shot away, and immediately after a second shot penetrated forward, a splinter wounding a stoker severely. At this time they appeared to have got our range pretty accurately, and round and conical shot whistled thickly between the masts. I went round the ship and found the men fighting the main deck guns, all stripped to the waist. Between each shot they had to sit down and wait until the smoke cleared. They were very anxious to know the result of their fire, and asked eager questions of me as to what could be seen above, but I could tell them little, for the smoke hung like a veil between us and the shore.

The enemy were certainly sticking to their guns manfully, although amid the hail of heavy shell and Gatling and Nordenfeldt bullets it must have been hot indeed inside the forts. But luckily for us their fire, although good in direction, was bad in elevation, and we were seldom hit. By eight o'clock the Monarch had silenced a small fort opposed to her and set fire to the building and dismounted the guns, and she now joined us against the formidable works of Fort Meks.

The Egyptians in that battery still replied briskly, but although several times struck, none of the shots penetrated our battery or the water line. But where no armor protected her the shot scattered showers of splinters through the ship. One shot struck the quarterdeck close to Lieutenant Lambton, who happened at the moment to be speaking to me, but although numerous splinters flew about no one was injured.

THE SECOND DAY.

☞ At eight o'clock on Wednesday the Admiral summoned the captains of the fleet to a consultation on board the Invincible, and the result was that it was decided that the sea was too heavy for serious operation. The rolling of the iron-clads would unsettle their service, and the town lying behind the fort might suffer severely from the shot and shell flying too high. Admiral Seymour therefore deferred it...

...ent. The troops engaged upon the work at once abandoned it and the firing ceased.

A white flag was now hoisted at the lighthouse and the Bittern gunboat was sent inside to inquire as to the intentions of the government. Information was conveyed to the commander of the Bittern that Toulba Pasha, the military commander in Alexandria, wished to communicate with Admiral Seymour. Lieutenant Lambton replied that, as a preliminary condition to further negotiation, the forts dominating the entrance to the harbor must be surrendered. Toulba Pasha refused to accept these terms, and the Bittern returned to acquaint the Admiral with his refusal.

Fires were discovered in several parts of the town and it was supposed these had sprung from bursting shells, or been set by plunderers.

All accounts say that the Egyptian troops fought bravely. The English fleet for a whole day poured a terrific fire, from the heaviest guns ever used in a battle, into the Egyptian forts, some of which were too weak to endure such a fire for an hour. The biggest and most destructive projectiles that the science of gunnery has been able to produce plowed up the earthworks, smashed the Egyptian guns, and tumbled the shaky walls down about the ears of Arabi's men, and yet the latter fought on, hour after hour, amid the dust and smoke and ruin, like veterans of twenty wars. How coolly the Egyptian gunners handled their guns is shown by the fact that every one of the ships was repeatedly hit, and all were more or less damaged by the fire from the forts. The Egyptians had up-hill work from the start. They had no shells, and their first shots fell short of the English fleet, while the great guns of the latter sent their projectiles plumb into the forts at every fire. But despite the storm of iron that burst upon them, knocking their guns from under their hands, the Egyptians persevered until they got the range of the enemy, and then made their round shot count upon the thick steel-clad side of the British vessels. In the night, after the first day's bombardment, the British turning their electric lights upon the dismantled forts, saw the Egyptians laboring at the hopeless task of repairing some of their battered works in preparation for the renewal of the battle. Some big projectiles were hurled from the ships at the workmen, who undauntedly returned the fire with field artillery. After this it will not do to call the Egyptians cowards.

THIRD DAY.

On the morning of the third day, the Helicon, which had gone in to inquire the meaning of the flag of truce, found no one on board the Mahroussa or in the Arsenal, and was unable to open communication with the enemy. The Helicon then returned with the news to the Admiral.

The great fires in the city continued to extend. The Admiral was determined to discover what was passing there. Accordingly First Lieutenant Forsyth took the steam pinnace on shore, where it was found that Arabi withdrew his troops under cover of the flag of truce. Accounts say that his army was little more than a disorganized mob, and was in full retreat.

Shortly after the landing a body of 100 Europeans fought their way down to the beach and were taken off to the fleet in boats. They reported that they passed a terrible night, having defended themselves desperately in the Ottoman Bank and the adjoining offices and buildings. They reported that hundreds of Europeans and Christians have, to their knowledge, been massacred with circumstances of horrible barbarity.

Before the Egyptian troops left, all the convicts were let loose and they soon commenced their work of devastation and outrage. The Europeans say that they saw hundreds of Christians and Europeans massacred, dragged through streets, mutilated, stamped upon and thrown into burning buildings with their feet and hands tied.

The convicts set fire to the European section of the city and this was entirely destroyed.

The refugees who sought shelter on the English men-of-war are chiefly Greeks and Italians, only one being an Englishman. Many of them were badly wounded. They say that the soldiers and convicts were joined by hundreds of women in their work of sacking the European portion of the city.

One report claims that 1,500 men were killed and 2,000 wounded by the guns of the Inflexible.

A gunner on board the Alexandra performed a gallant deed. A lighted shell fell upon the main deck. The gunner picked it up and immersed the burning fuse in a bucket of water. This is described as a wonderful piece of devotion, more gallant than anything of the sort ever before chronicled. The gunner will be recommended for the Victoria Cross.

The Khedive and Dervisch Pasha are safe. They left Ramleh and drove through Alexandria with their suites. Stone Pasha, the American officer, was with them.

THE FARMER'S HYMN.

BY WHITTIER.

Painter of the fruits and flowers,
We own Thy wise design,
Whereby these human hands of ours
May share the work of Thine.

The toil is sweet with thankfulness,
Our burden is our boon;
The curse of Earth's gray morning is
The blessing of its noon.

And still with reverent hands we cull
Thy gifts, each year renewed;
The good is always beautiful,
The beautiful is good.

MATTIE SCOTT'S HELPFUL DAY

A STORY FOR CHILDREN.

If any one had told Mattie Scott that she was selfish she would have been apt to burst into tears and feel that she was very hardly used. She would certainly divide her cake with her sisters, and even give her only orange to the poor little sick baby in the shoemaker's shop. She shared everything she had quite willingly, for she was not greedy or mean, but for all that she was selfish without knowing it.

Her mother was not very rich. She had but one servant who did the hard work in the kitchen, and there were lots of little children, but Mattie never thought to hold the baby, or dress the little ones, or go of an errand, or put the rooms in order. She obeyed when she was asked to do these things, but she did it unwillingly and escaped as soon as possible; and it seemed so disagreeable to her, that her kind mother did all she could herself and seldom called upon her. She could not bear to see the dimples fade out of her cheeks and her mouth turn down at the corners. So, while her mother did everything, Mattie, a great girl of twelve and a half, played and enjoyed herself and never noticed.

But at last one day Mrs. Scott was ill, and the doctor was called. She lay in bed two days, and then got about again, but she was pale and had a headache.

Mattie was sorry and frightened, and that evening, instead of going to Kitty Paul's to play croquet, she sat upon the little bench under the dining room window, crocheting a cap for her doll, and keeping as quiet as a mouse, she hardly knew why. Her mother and father sat within the room, talking to each other, and Mattie heard every word they said.

"The doctor thinks you work too hard, my dear," said Mr. Scott.

"Perhaps I do," said Mrs. Scott, "but how can I help it? There are so many things to do. We can scarcely afford to pay Bridget, and I must do the rest; there is no one else."

"Could not Mattie help you a little?" asked Mr. Scott. "She seems to do nothing but play. At her age my sisters were of great assistance to my mother."

"Oh, husband," said Mrs. Scott, "girls are so different. Mattie loves me dearly, but she feels so badly when I keep her in to help me, that I think she cannot be well. I have not the heart to do it."

"I am afraid the end will be that you will break down," said Mr. Scott. "I shall lose you, and the children will lose their mother. What a terrible thing it is to be poor, Fannie. Perhaps we could board."

"With five children! Oh, William!" cried Mrs. Scott, "and such an uncomfortable, unhomelike life. Do not worry, my dear. No doubt I will get strong again."

Mattie heard her father sigh, and a terrible fear came into her heart. What if she should lose her dear mother? It was too horrible to contemplate. It had never occurred to her before that her mother had too much to do; and she knew very well that she had not looked sad and solemn when called upon to help because she was ill or weary; she wanted to play—that was all. Now she remembered how her mother had caught her breath ta the head of the stairs; and it did not hurt her to run up and down a dozen times.

"Oh, how wicked I have been!" she thought; "and how selfish! But to-morrow I will begin to do differently. I will let papa see that I am not an idle girl. I will show mamma how I love her."

Then Mattie, to begin overnight, went into the dining-room and asked her mother if she might not put Kate and Jennie to bed; the two little ones were already gone.

"I will make them say their prayers and tuck them in nicely," she said, "and will tell them stories if they want them."

"You dear child, I shall be glad," said mamma.

And her father kissed her warmly. He guessed that she had heard their talk.

Early next morning Mattie was down stairs setting the breakfast table; she pulled the cloth straight, set the tray mathematically, filled the sugar bowl, and did all as nicely as any one. Then she ran up stairs to dress Kate and Jennie. When mamma came down with Tod and baby she could not believe her eyes; and indeed all day long she found it hard to understand that that bright, helpful little Mattie was her lazy little girl.

She watched her as she dusted the sitting-room, pulled the shades evenly, filled the vases with flowers, and made everything as neat as possible, and felt pleased and happy; but the great surprise was when, on coming home from market, she found the beds made, basins washed, towels neatly folded on the ewers, and night-gowns under the pillows.

"Come, mamma," said Kate. "See what we did. Mattie showed us how to help, and all the quilts are tucked in straight."

"Yes, mamma," said Mattie; "just you sit down and sew, and we will do the work. I never thought before how tired you must be."

"But my little girls must not tire themselves too much," said mamma.

"Oh, it is nothing, compared to school," said Mattie. "This vacation we will do everything but what Biddy does."

And indeed the little household brigade went to work with a will, and all that summer vacation they were as busy as bees. They had lots of fun, too, and slept like tops all night; and when September came mamma was really quite well and strong again, for the good rest had been what she needed.

Very soon Mr. Scott began to make money, and could keep another servant; but Mattie and Kate and Jennie never grew idle. They were always ready to help mamma, and the praises that both parents gave them were ample repayment.

"Never were such girls as mine," said Mrs. Scott; and "I am proud of my daughters," said their father.

Afterward, when she was older, mamma told Mattie that she believed that but for that good rest in the long-past vacation time she must have died, or at least become an invalid for life. And then Mattie told her mother of the talk she had heard under the dining-room window.

"I did not think how selfish I was, mamma," she said.

"Only thoughtless, dear," said Mrs. Scott; "and you have well atoned for it."

How he Threw Her Love Away.

"I do not believe you."

Ethelbert McGuire winced as Myrtle Hathaway spoke these words—cruel, bitter words, that seemed to sear his very soul as he stood there in the gloaming, the time of silence and shadows. The swallows were twittering among the leaves in their noisy way, the ice cream lairs were casting their baleful light across the broad thoroughfare, from which the rattle, the roar and the crash of life in a great city had but just departed.

"You cannot mean it, Myrtle," the young man says, his voice choked with emotion. "You surely cannot doubt my word—the word of one to whom you have plighted your troth, and in whose life your future is bound up."

"But I do mean it," replies the girl, "although God knows my life would be brighter, better, happier, were it not so. I have loved you with a strong, country-butter-love that has become a part of my very existence. And it is when I have taught my heart to beat responsive to your every word, when I have come to believe in you with all the passionate trustfulness of a woman's nature, that you come to me, and here, on this beautiful June evening, when the heavens are panoplied with stars, and the air is balmy with the perfume of roses, you say to me that you have never bet on a horse race—you tell me this solemnly and earnestly, knowing that my heart will not let me judge harshly any action of yours. No, Ethelbert; I love you with a maddening, ninety-days-or-ten-per-cent-off-for-cash trust that is beyond compare, but cannot let you abuse that trust. I am but a girl—a sensitive, passionate, one-bustle-and-a-four-dollar-bang girl, but I am not a chump"—and Myrtle turned to enter the parlor.

"But I swear it!" exclaimed Ethelbert. "I swear to you that I would not bet four dollars against ten that Maud S. could beat three minutes."

"You would not?" asked the girl.

"No," was the reply. "I would not bet on anything."

"Then," said the girl, speaking slowly, and with grave tenderness, "you had better head for the gate. I can never place my happiness and chances for spring bonnets in the hands of a man who would let so sure a thing as that get away."

Fooling His Congregation.

The venerable clergyman arose slowly in the pulpit, and glancing around on the thinly-scattered congregation, and, in an emphatic tone, in which there was more of sorrow than of anger: "My beloved brethren, I am in hopes that there will be more present next Sabbath, as I will then have occasion to reveal a scandal which has long oppressed my heart. It concerns the members of this church very deeply, and no one who has a regard for eternal happiness should be absent." When the benediction was pronounced the handful of people slowly dispersed, but behold how much good seed a few can scatter! The next Sunday the sacred edifice was packed. There was, indeed, hardly breathing room when the white-haired sage once more lifted his head above the pulpit cushions, and a silence as of death fell upon the expectant throng. He stood a moment looking upon the unwonted scene; and then his voice in silvery cadences broke the hush of anticipation. "Dear friends," he said, "the scandal which I would reveal to you is this—you will gather in this place in crowds to hear mischievous gossip, but you will not come to listen to explanations of the inspired word. Now, my children, I offer my resignation. I am going to Europe for six months, and I shall pay my own expenses." But no one of that vast assemblage took the lesson to himself; he applied it to his neighbor.—Christian Observer.

Flies and Mosquitoes.

Whatever the annoyance of flies in the house, do not use fly poison. This is sold under the deceptive name of "Cobalt," to be mixed with sweetened water and set about the rooms to attract the flies. It kil's the flies—but it kills children also. We have known of two distressing deaths from this cause, and it should be generally known, that the powder sold under that name is not cobalt at all, but is really metallic arsenic, and a most deadly poison. There should be a severe penalty for selling this most destructive agent under the false name of "cobalt." Do not use it, either as "cobalt," or in the shape of "fly-paper." A dark paper is sold labeled, "fly-paper," with directions to put a piece in a plate and keep it moist. This paper is impregnated with the same deadly arsenic. In Europe a still more dangerous fly-paper is sold, which has been soaked in the deadly cyanide of potassium. Avoid them all. The sticky fly-paper, which the makers call "Catch 'em Alive Oh!" is any common paper upon which is spread a thick varnish made by melting together rosin and linseed-oil; it is not dangerous, and acts only mechanically, by cruelly holding the insects fast until they die. Quassia is stated to be poisonous to flies; we have not had occassion to use it, but have no doubt of its efficacy. A strong tea made of this, sweetened with molasses, may be exposed in plates without fear of danger. It is said that strong green tea, well sweetened, acts as poison to flies. With regard to the destruction of the mosquitoes that may enter the house, we should be disposed to make a trial of the Persian insect powder, pyrethrum. A small quantity of this burned in the closed bed-room, has been found to destroy every mosquito. In France, pastiles made of this powder, are used for this purpose. The same end may be accomplished by sprinkling some of the powder upon a few live coals, on a shovel or in any safe vessel. The powder is perfectly harmless to all but insect life.—American Agriculturist.

The Situation in Egypt.

The present crisis in Egypt, and how it may, says a writer in the New York Times, will have at least one good result, viz., that of giving such publicity to the condition of the country and its people as to make a relapse into the old system of Government, or even a continuance of the present one, all but impossible. The world is beginning to discover that the Valley of the Nile has a population of its own, and that that population has as good a right to exist as the citizens of any European State. Whatever form of rule may be established in Egypt, the "fellaheen" cannot possibly be worse off under it than they have been under their own native rulers, or as badly off as they still are under their own native overseers. In the whole world there is not a more cruel and remorseless tyrant than an Egyptian Arab set in authority over his former comrades. Half a century ago Mehemet Ali Pasha thought fit to make a canal between Cairo and Alexandria. The fellaheen were hunted out from their cellars in the city and their mud burrows in the fields and forced to dig the canal, not only without pay, but even without food, except what they could pick up for themselves. The only thing with which the Goverment was liberal was flogging, the whips of rhinoceros hide never being idle till the work was completed, at a cost of 20,000 (some say 30,000) lives. The present writer witnessed a similiar scene on the road from Cairo to Ghizeh in 1870, the whole population of the district being at forced labor on the repair of the Nile embankment. One old man fell from sheer exhaustion, but the merciless lashes of the whips forced him to rise and stagger a few paces in his agony only to fall once more. If this be government, one may well pray for a change.

A Detective's Discovery.

The Philadelphia Times, among some anecdotes of the late Detective Callanan, of that city relates the following:

"One day there was great consternation in Drexel's banking-house over the discovery that a whole page of checks, signed in blank, was missing. These, in the hands of expert rogues, were worth a million. Callanan was sent for in a hurry. Every clerk had a theory. Callanan glanced around, climbed upon a stool, critically examined the top of the screen on the counter and stepped down. 'Nobody ever reached over there. The dust is undisturbed,' he said. He searched among the papers, checks, etc., but could not find the missing sheet. 'Where do you throw your waste-paper?' The spot was shown in the ash-heap. Callanan, after a minute's probing with a cane, turned up a greenish-looking paper, which he examined and discovered to be the anxious looked for slip. Any waste-paper gatherer could have picked it up in the interval between Saturday and Monday, when it had lain out of doors. The elder Drexel, when he was handed the sheet, rewarded the detective with $50, which was the quickest earned money he had ever received."

A MEMBER of Parliament, in discussing the question of trial by jury in Ireland the other evening, became excited and exclaimed, "With trial by jury have I lived, and, by the blessing of God, with trial by jury I will die!" The roar of laughter which followed called the honorable gentleman's attention to the error he had made.

WIT AND WISDOM.

IF, as naturalists say, all animals have a language of their own, then the language used by cattle must be low.

THERE are six or seven United States Senators said to be worth one million dollars or over. Worth that much in money, of course, you understand.

A PHILADELPHIA court has appointed a guardian for Keely's motor. We have thought for some time that feeble invention needed more protecting care than it was receiving.

WHAT relation is a loaf of bread to a steam-engine?—Bread is a necessity; a steam-engine is an invention; necessity is the mother of invention; therefore a loaf of bread is mother to a steam-engine.

"WE go in for the old flag," remarked the property owner who was ordered to lay a new side-walk in front of his lot. His patriotism did not save him.

"HOW'S CROPS?" asked the sandy pig looking through the fence. "Wormy, awfully wormy," replied the speckled hen, diligently following the man at the plow.

GENERAL FITZHUGH LEE wrote from Richmond to the Committee on Invitations: "Greatly preferring the society of the 'Society of the Army of the Potomac' in 1882 to the society of the 'Army of the Potomac from 1861 to 1865, I regret that it will not be in my power to be present at their reunion in Detroit on the 14th and 15th instant."

A BEAUTIFUL girl looked out of her window one day, and saw her rude brother out on the sidewalk, walking about on his hands with his feet dangling up in the air. "Tom," she said reproveingly, 'don't, Tom; I wouldn't do that, Tom; indeed I wouldn't.' "Wouldn't?" replied the rude boy, looking up and speaking with marked and malicious emphasis. "Wouldn't? By Jocks, you couldn't!"

"JULIA" wants to know "what a party platform is?" Well, a platform, Julia, is one preamble and twenty resolutions, strong in non-essentials, vague in essentials; round the bush on tariff, and rough as thunder on the Mormons; clamorous for civil service reform, with a reserved definition of civil service reform; down on corruption, loud in its praise of purity, and determined to have it if it takes every cent the party can raise. The platform you understand, Julia, is a legitimate and necessary part of the campaign pomp and circumstance; it goes along with the banners, transparencies and torches, and when the campaign is over—well, it is stored away in the cellar or garret, along with the rest of the uniforms and torches. A campaign platform is very much like the campaign torch, indeed; it gives out a great deal of smell and smoke with a very uncertain, flickering light.

A FEW HAWKEYE DOTS.

SOMEBODY seems to be talking politics down in Pennsylvania.

YOU plant onions in rows and reap them in tiers.

IF a few more women will just invent a few more medicines and have their portraits published with the advertisements thereof, the daily paper will soon look like a photograph album.

THE obelisk can't stand the climate of Central Park and is gradually wasting away. No wonder; under the present management about everything that was ever put into Central Park is being wasted.

"WHY do they call him a brakeman?" asked the child, after that excellent official had looked in at the car door and "hollered" one of the lamps out. "What does he break?" "He breaks the silence," said the father, and the train rolled on, laden with truth.

THE PUNSTER GOES BUGGY RIDING.

"Suppose," he said, in accents soft,
"A fellow just like me
Should axle little girl to wed—
What would the answer be?"

The maiden drops her liquid eyes—
Her smiles with blushes mingle—
"Why seek the bridal halter when
You may live on, sir, cingle?"

And then he spoke: "Oh, be my bride,
I ask you once again;
You are the empress of my heart,
And there shall ever rein!

"I'll never tire of kindly deeds
To win your gentle heart,
And saddle be the shaft that rends
Our happy lives apart!"

Upon her cheeks the maiden felt
The mantling blushes glow—
She took him for her faithful hub,
To share his wheel or whoa!

THE "spoils system," my boy? Well, it's a system by which you don't get any of the spoils. Stamp it out? Why, certainly; jump on it with both feet. What can we see in such an iniquitous system for us. A "boss?" Why a "boss" is any man who gets more votes in convention than your own personal candidate. Dangerous, why of course he is. A carboy of nitro glycerine is the morning bottle of the cradle alongside of him. Away with him! We will name our own "boss" and then see who runs this machine. The "machine?" Well, it is that portion, or rather faction, yes, faction, of your party that refuses to vote in caucus as you tell them to. Indeed, it is revolutionary, factious and corrupt beyond all measure. Certainly, we must break it up; smash it to pieces; down with the machine; and if these fellows aren't pure enough and patriotic enough to vote as we tell 'em, read them out of the party. Tell you what, my boy, there's nothing going like independent politics. When you get left in convention, always come out independent, and come out strong.

OXFORD CO. ADVERTISER.

FRIDAY, JULY 21, 1882.

An Independent Local Newspaper.

[Entered as Second Class mail matter.]

TERMS: $1.50 per year. When paid in advance $1.25. All papers sent out of the county must be paid for in advance.

Address,
ADVERTISER,
Norway, Me.

Old and New.

The British now rule Egypt.

Senator Ben Hill is worse and is not expected to live long.

Mrs. Lincoln, widow of the late President Lincoln, died at Springfield, Ill., Sunday night.

The late Mrs. Lincoln's estate, all in Government bonds, amounts to $74,000. She claimed to be very poor.

Brother Prescott of the Union and Journal, Biddeford, gets the start of them all and has the first flag raising.

"Tug Wilson" got a thousand dollars for letting Jack Sullivan pound him twelve minutes last Monday night in New York.

The Wilton Record completes its first volume with last week's issue. It steps out of the usual course of local journals and gives an index of the volume in the last paper. It's a good idea.

A New Hampshire photographer has grouped representatives of five generations on one card—a good old grandmother, of Petersboro, aged 104, and her son, 86; her grand-daughter, 58; her great-grand-daughter, 32; and her great-great-grandson, 7.

The first half of the present year makes a showing of 4,090 miles of new railroad, which is a greater mileage of construction than in any previous half year in the history of the country.

The sale of the toy pistol must be prohibited is the annual newspaper editorial subject after each Fourth of July celebration. This year is no exception. The report of death from lockjaw from the effect of flesh wound from these pistols has increased this year.

Wendell P. Linnell, of Otisfield, had his barn destroyed by fire Wednesday night. Cause unknown. Loss $700; insured for $350 in Liverpool. London and Globe Insurance Co. Mr. Henry Perkins lost a horse in the fire and Mr. Linnell lost all his farming tools including a good wagon, sleigh, harness, etc.

OUR LITTLE ONES and the Nursery are combined into one of the finest juvenile publications issued in America. The illustrations are all works of art, and the sketches for very little children are gems of first water. It is published at $1.50 a year by the Russell Publishing Co., Boston, Mass. The Company also issues an elegant red and gold cover for binding the volumes.

The paper says ex-Secretary Blaine, who went to Congress a poor man, is estimated to be worth only ten millions. And yet he says in a letter that he has for a long time neglected his financial interests. If he had only had an eye to business all these years he might have had something handsome laid by for a rainy day, poor man!

The scene at the sacking of Alexandria by the Arabs is heartrending. 2000 Europeans were massacred in cold blood by the Bedouin. There were desperate fights with the mob in the streets. This splendid city of 200,000 inhabitants is now in ruins.

A few nights ago the people of Muskegon, Mich., felt a terific shock; at the same time there was a bright sulphuric light, and a ball of fire seemed to fall into Muskegon lake, about 300 feet from the shore. It is believed that a great meteoric stone fell, and for a time the people were terrified.

A cyclone wrecked a Western college the other day; but its fate is not so deplorable as that of another which is to be sold out by the mortgagees. The Cincinnati Wesleyan College, founded forty years ago, is in debt to the amount of $80,000, chiefly for a large and costly building erected twelve or fifteen years ago. The debt was not originally so large, but it has steadily increased. So the professors go out, and the auctioneer comes in. Whether this incident will have any influence upon the vanity of establishing little colleges in the West is doubtful.

What would our fathers and grandfathers have said, fifty or sixty years ago, could they have looked forward to this day and witnessed the fine carriages drawn by handsome horses and well filled with ladies and gentlemen, taking their Sunday rides? They would have been horror stricken and the law would have been put into force, no doubt, to prevent such a desecration of the day, but time and the people have changed, whether for the better or worse time only will show. The ladies especially in former days were disinclined and too conscientious to spend Sunday as a day of recreation. But when church members set the example what may we expect of others. But then the church too, is growing far more liberal, than it was formerly.

Democratic County Convention.

The democrats met in convention at Paris Hill, Wednesday. There was but a small delegation present. Mr. Thos. S. Bridgham of Buckfield called the meeting to order. Major D. R. Hastings of Fryeburg, was elected temporary chairman with M. F. Charles of Lovell as Secretary. Major Hastings on taking the chair made a short address and gave his reasons why there were so few delegates present.

The services of the committee on credentials was not deemed necessary and were dispensed with. The temporary organization was made permanent.

S. R. Carter of Paris, offered a resolution asking the convention to endorse the nominations made at the recent Greenback convention. The resolution was unanimously adopted.

The convention proceeded to fill the balance of the ticket. It was all done by ballot.

For Senator in the western district Asa O. Pike of Fryeburg, had 20 votes and was unanimously nominated. For County Commissioner in the eastern district, Wm. A. Frothingham of Paris was unanimously selected. County Attorney, A. S. Kimball of Waterford was renominated. Elbridge G. Osgood of Fryeburg, was nominated for Register of Deeds in the Western district.

A committee of the whole was appointed to draft resolutions. The resolves were similar to those usually made on such occasions. They were read by S. R. Carter Esq. and adopted by the convention.

The Democratic County Committee is made up of the following gentlemen:

I. G. Virgin, of Canton.
H. A. Randall, of Dixfield.
W. H. Whitcomb, of Norway.
M. F. Charles, of Lovell.
John A. Sweat, of Brownfield.
W. E. Skillings, of Bethel.
T. S. Bridgham, of Buckfield.
O. A. Thayer, of Paris.

The different organizations of the County have had their conventions. There are three organizations, each have met at Paris Hill and have, presumably, selected the best men of their party to represent them. As yet the campaign has not really commenced. The political pot however is warming up a little and will shortly begin to boil.

For fear that some of our readers may forget or get mixed in the premises we append a list of the nominees:

REPUBLICAN COUNTY TICKET.

For Senators,
E. W. STEARNS of Lovell.
J. W. CLARK of Andover.

For Sheriff,
JORDAN STACY of Porter.

For County Attorney,
JAMES S. WRIGHT of Paris.

For Clerk of Courts,
A. S. AUSTIN of Dixfield.

For Commissioners.
FRANK Y. BRADLEY of Fryeburg.
GEO. F. HAMMOND of Paris.

For Register of Deeds,
(Eastern District.)
JOHN F. STANLEY of Paris.
(Western District.)
S. C. HOBBS of Fryeburg.

For Treasurer.
J. C. MARBLE of Paris.

GREENBACK COUNTY TICKET.

For Senator,
J. L. CHAPMAN of Andover.
(Western District.)

For Sheriff.
LEWIS CHILD of Milton Plantation.

For County Attorney.

For Clerk of Courts,
C. F. WHITMAN of Norway.

For Commissioners,
H. G. WALKER of Lovell.
(Eastern District.)

For Register of Deeds,
(Eastern District.)
H. S. McINTIRE of Peru.
(Western District.)

For Treasurer,
GEO. W. HAMMOND of Paris.

*These vacancies are to be filled by the Greenback County Committee.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY TICKET.

The above Greenback Ticket with the following additions:

For Senator,
(Western District.)
A. O. PIKE of Fryeburg.

For County Attorney,
A. S. KIMBALL of Waterford.

For Commissioners,
WM. A. FROTHINGHAM of Paris.

For Register of Deeds,
(Eastern District.)
E. G. OSGOOD of Fryeburg.

Albany.

The school in Dist. No. 5 taught by Miss Vina G. Drew, closed July 14th, after a successful term of ten weeks. The following are the names of scholars not absent one half day: Cora Bird, Emma Bird, Freddie Hazeltine, Bertha Hazeltine, Annie Guptill, Fannie Clark, Susie Grover and Aglena Saunders.

Andover.

Haying begins in earnest this week.

Hoed crops are looking well and making good growth. Corn is spindling only a few days later than last year.

Mr. J. H. Bailey is repairing his barn.

We are informed that Rev. C. S. Cummings will visit Vineland, N. J. in a few days, and those who profess to know say a bride will accompany him when he returns.

Rev. Mr. Bosserman of Bethel, at Union Hall Sunday p. m.

Mrs. Wm. Poor and sons of Springfield, Mass., are spending the summer with her brother, F. S. Smith, Esq., of this place.

Mr. J. L. Bailey, who for the past year has been in the employ of the Thorndike Mfg. Co. of Lowell, Mass., is home for a time.

We are indebted to M. S. Hussey, Esq., of Roxbury, for some fine specimens of quartz crystals. They were taken from a ledge near his house.

Messrs. Wardwell & Martin have recently purchased a new safe for their store. They have also just added an extension to the first floor in the rear of the building, and built a shed for the convenience of customers.

A town meeting is called for the 25 inst. Several articles are in the warrant, but the principle object of the meeting is to see what action the town will take in regard to the Steam mill Mr. O. P. Smith proposes to build.

B.

The school in Dist. No. 4 closed last Friday after a successful term of ten weeks. The school was taught by Miss Mattie Brooks of Norway. Miss Brooks is an accomplished teacher, and has a faculty of maintaining good order—something which we find lacking in most of our teachers. We are glad to learn that she is to teach our school this fall.

F. A.

Bolster's Mills.

Summer boarders and visitors from the cities are coming into this vicinity nearly every day. The stages are crowded with passengers.

Mr. Pomroy, of the firm of Storer Bros. of Portland, and his wife and three children are stopping with Moore Hancock.

Mrs. Horace Barrows and Miss Nellie Bradford of Portland, are visiting Mrs. Rebecca Knight.

Miss Mintie B. Small, who has been working in a shop in Boston, is at home to visit her friends, and to rest during the hot season.

Farmers are driving their haying as rapidly as possible this week.

Washington Chaplin of Naples, died at his residence, July 13th, in the 88th year of his age. He was the oldest member of Oriental Lodge of Masons. The funeral was attended by the Lodge on Saturday, July 15th.

Canton.

The recent warm weather and frequent showers after a long cold spring have brightened our prospects very much of late, so that we now anticipate an average harvest; hay, cereals and potatoes. The prospect for an abundance of fruit is good.

Business in our village is brisk and shows signs of prosperity. Our sixteen stores, iron foundry and various mechanical industries are all moving to the front and doing a healthy business.

Our Rumford Falls & Buckfield Railroad is doing a large business which is continually increasing and has been from its first start, and much more than even its warmest friends anticipated in so short a time. Its road bed is in fine condition, and its rolling stock and depots will compare favorably with any in the state.

The high prices of dairy products and a ready home market are affording great facilities for profit to our numerous large dairymen of from ten to thirty-five cows.

Our three churches are regularly supplied, and the Sabbath Schools well attended.

The terminus of our Railroad is now at Gilbertville the east side of our village proper, and at the west end of the new toll bridge spanning the Androscoggin river, just beyond and directly by the Canton Steam Saw Mills, and immediately in front of the Hon. A. C. Denison's large and very extensive Pulp Mills, thus affording ample facilities for the transportation of the large amount of incoming and outgoing freight for those establishments.

This new bridge just completed at an expense of twelve thousand dollars, is about 450 feet in length and connects Gilbertville with Canton Point which is the loveliest garden of the Androscoggin River, embracing quite a number of intervale farms of from one half to one mile in width, the soil of which is equal to any in the state of Maine. Those farms vary in value from three to twenty thousand dollars.

Canton Point has already received an impetus from the location and building of the bridge. A large new Steam Mill for the sawing of lumber has been erected and is now shipping large amounts of lumber over the Railroad to Portland and other places besides its local business; also quite a number of dwelling houses and other buildings have recently been erected. More next week.

Mexico.

A very nice four year old colt belonging to Geo. H. Gleason, running in his pasture, went down a steep bank, Sunday, and broke one of his legs, necessitating the killing of him.

Haying begins in earnest, Monday. We shall get a very light crop of hay in the vicinity of Mexico. Other crops look well, but backward.

Oxford.

Joseph French, one of our prominent citizens, was found dead under a tree last Tuesday afternoon: He had been hoeing most of the day and complaining of not feeling well, went and sat down under a tree and expired instantly. Funeral services were held at his late residence Thursday afternoon, conducted by Rev. G. F. Tewksbury of Lyman.

Methodist Quarterly meeting last Sabbath forenoon. Rev. Charles Allen, presiding elder, was present and conducted the exercises. Two persons were received into the church by baptism.

List of persons who pay a money tax of more than fifty dollars:

Thomas Baker,	$85.95	J. F. Lovering,	50.73
I. H. Chapman,	72.51	Manson Heins,	65.50
W. F. Caldwell,	55.55	Joseph Robinson,	71.40
H. W. Coy,	62.26	Mrs. J. Robinson,	60.56
Darell & Hawkes,	62.55	Robinson Mf. Co.	757.68
Harper Manf. Co.	265.80	Geo. W. Richards,	52.10
S. T. Holbrook,	153.51	W. N. Thomas,	53.07
C. S. Hayes,	143.55	G. P. Whitney,	143.21
F. R. Holmes,	152.48	Whitney & Clark,	54.41
I. S. Holmes,	61.67	Mousam Mf. Co.	148.49
A. L. Hersey,	80.30	John J. Perry,	102.11
King & Holmes,	68.94

South Waterford.

Fearing that some of the readers of the Advertiser may not have a copy of the new "geography of Waterford," they may by reading last weeks' correspondence from "Gilpin" be led to suppose that we were gradually marching towards the north pole, or some other locality. We must acknowledge that the "city" cousin is out done. For the past week we have been consulting the oldest inhabitants, and we find that the "Retired Flat" is situated (as we have supposed for 25 years) on the shore of "Tom Pond." We love to hear about the "lofty and majestic Mt. Tir'em," that is nice, but for "Rocka Lake," give us the "old Tom Pond" straight, then we shan't get left.

Mr. Albert Stanwood, connected with the Boston Water Works, is stopping for a few weeks with his family.

Lots of hay getting wet this morning. Some are all done haying; others not begun. Help very scarce.

The evidences are that "old Mr. Cider" is right around and doing all he can to help the haying along, as usual. Don't crook the elbow quite so often, boys.

Bro. Cobb, the P. M. is holding the webbings over a good style one.

Mrs. Benj. Whitehouse and son of Norway, are making a short stay with us.

Charlie Green "Merrill's Striker" can mow more ground in one hour than any man we ever saw. Dare not tell the story there are so many smart old men.

Paris Hill.

E. P. Chase, Esq., of Portland, and wife are spending a vacation in Paris —their old home.

Rev. S. A. Severance of Turner exchanged pulpits with Rev. Dr. Estes, last Sabbath. His discourse from 2 Cor. 111:18 was well received by our people. The evening meeting was made more than usually interesting by the presence and assistance of visitors in the village.

Quite a large number of summer boarders are already in town. Among those spending last Sabbath here were the following at the Hubbard House.

Mrs. P. W. Sheafer, Pottsville, Pa.; W. C. Gray, Boston; Ned H. Gray, Malden, Mass.; R. L. Morse, Portland; Miss A. M. Woodman, Mrs. A. M. Woodman, Miss E. Hayes, Cambridge, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. Ivers L. Witherell, Master Fred L. Witherell, Lynn, Mass.; Frank Harlow, Dixfield; Mrs. Jas. Purinton, A. J. Purinton, Boston.

Prof. C. A. Black, of Lincoln Academy, at Newcastle, is spending a portion of his vacation at the homestead.—Democrat.

His Sign.

Three or four days ago a colored man, living in Detroit, hung out a sign on his house, which read:

"For Sail."

He happened to be at the gate when a white man came along and said:

"You'll never get an offer for your house with any such spelling as that."

The owner of the place was greatly puzzled to improve the orthography, but finally took his wife's advice, and made it read:

"For Sell."

This seemed to be all right for a day or two, and then a school boy halted, and said:

"If you don't fix that sign, all the children will be laughing at you."

There was another convention of the family, to see where the mistake came in, and the sign was made to read:

"Eur Sall."

It had not been up an hour when an old colored man came along and queried:

"Does you mean dat dis place am fur Sally? What yer gwine to giv de place to Sally for?"

"Am you findin' fault wid dat sign?" asked the other.

"Well, I doan' quite cotch on to the spellin'."

"You doan', eh? Has you got seben hundred dollars to pay cash down fur dis place?"

"No, sah."

"Den you pass on, an' shet up! Maybe I doan' spell jist de same as you do, but I'ze got prospects of handlin' seben hundred dollars, while you has got boaf knees out to de wedder. I doan' ker to use high flown language, an' hev to w'ar a shoe on one foot an' a bute on edder. Go long, ole man—you am too fly on geog'aphy."—Ex.

The custom house officials at Montreal have seized tea valued at $40,000. New York brokers are trying to get the tea by false entries, and thus evade the 10 per cent duty.

Heart Disease Not So Fatal.

When an individual is reported to have died of disease of the heart we are in the habit of regarding it as an inevitable event, as something which could not have been foreseen or prevented; and it is too much the habit, when persons suddenly fall down dead, to report the heart as the cause. This silences all inquiry and investigation, and saves the trouble and inconvenience of a post-mortem. A true report would have a tendency to save many lives. It is through a report of the disease of the heart that many an opium-eater is led off into the grave that covers at once his folly and his crime; the brandy-drinker, too, quietly slides around the corner thus, and is heard of no more; in short, this report of disease of the heart is the mantle of charity which the police coroner and sympathetic physician throws around the graves of generous people. At a scientific congress at Strasburg it was reported that of sixty-six persons who had suddenly died an immediate and faithful post-mortem showed that only two persons had any heart affection whatever—one sudden death only in thirty-three from disease of the heart. Nine out of sixty die of apoplexy—one out of every seven—while forty-six, more than two out of three, died of lung affection, half of them from congestion of the lungs, that is, the lungs were so full of blood they could not work; there was not room enough for air to get in to support life. It is, then, of some practical interest to know some of the causes of congestion of the lungs; these are cold feet, tight shoes, light clothing, costive bowels, sitting still until chilled through after having warmed up by hard labor or a long hasty walk.—Hall's Journal of Health.

Arrangements are now being made at the treasury department for exchange of 3½ per cent. for 3s.

Aye and Double You Taffy Wire Gauged Biscuit, Non-Explosive Doughnuts, Sir Humphrey Davy Flip-Flaps, old but good, cooked on the Economic plan by the Great Michael Muldoon, while the

The Immense Demand for the New

Florence Favorite

OIL STOVE

FOR 1882,

With its Bronze and Nickel-Plated Trimmings!

STILL JUMPS.

MASON BROS,

Sole Agents for Norway and Paris.

REPORT

Of the condition of the NORWAY NATIONAL BANK, at Norway, in the State of Maine, at the close of business, July 1st, 1882.

RESOURCES.

Loans and Discounts,	$81,595.46
U. S. Bonds to secure circulation,	100,000.00
U. S. Bonds on hand,	25,000.00
Other stocks, bonds, and mortgages,	1,000.00
Due from approved reserve agents,	55,486.42
Due from other National Banks,	13,830.41
Furniture and fixtures,	2,375.00
Current expenses and taxes paid,	1,601.99
Premiums paid,	500.00
Checks and other cash items,	1,652.39
Bills of other Banks,	1,888.00
Fractional paper currency, nickels and pennies,	61.48
Specie,	1,500.00
Legal tender notes,	1,700.00
Redemption fund with U. S. Treasurer,	4,500.00
Total,	$291,442.65

LIABILITIES.

Capital stock paid in,	$100,000.00
Surplus fund,	7,500.00
Undivided profits,	6,118.79
National Bank notes outstanding,	90,000.00
Dividends unpaid,	683.00
Individual deposits subject to check,	70,385.45
Demand certificates of deposit,	7,311.00
Due to State Banks and bankers,	8,844.41
Total,	$291,442.65

STATE OF MAINE, County of Oxford, ss.

I, H. D. SMITH, Cashier of the above named bank, do solemnly swear that the above statemen is true to the best of my knowledge and belief. H. D. SMITH, CASHIER.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 13th day of July, 1882. H. M. BEARCE, Justice of the Peace.

CORRECT—Attest:
A. SHURTLEFF,
L. F. PIKE,
W. H. WHITCOMB,
} Directors.

Curtains and Curtain Fixtures!

Of all descriptions, at

NOYES' DRUG STORE.

CAMPAIGN PRESS

For the purpose of furthering the good cause in the coming political campaign, the Publishers of the PRESS propose to issue their Weekly and Daily Editions at the following extraordinarily low rates, barely covering the cost of material and postage.

The Maine State Press

Weekly, will be furnished, beginning with the number issued next after the receipt of the order in each case, and closing with the issue of Sept. 11th, containing a report of the Maine election.

Single Copies, —o— 25 Cents.

The Daily Press!

Will be furnished, beginning with the number issued next after receipt of order in each case, and closing with the issue of Sept. 16th, with full returns from Maine Election;

Single Copies, by mail, $1.00.

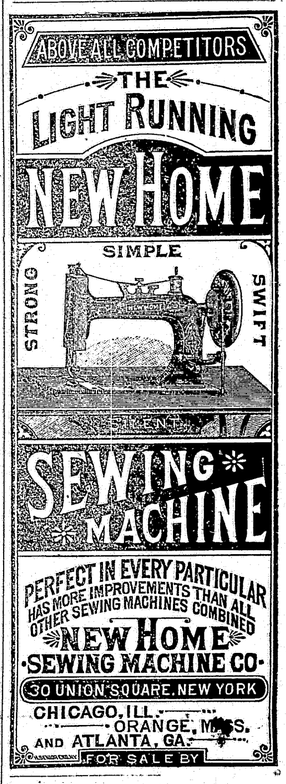

—o—

POSTAGE will in all cases be prepaid by the Publishers.

The PRESS will contain complete political news and information besides the customary general news, business and miscellaneous matter.

Republican committees and others desirous of the triumph of the right can do no more useful service than to aid in the dissemination of good reading matter. Address,

PORTLAND PUBLISHING CO.,
PORTLAND, ME.

REMEMBER

THE

Adams & Westlake,

Wire-Gauze, Non-Explosive

OIL STOVES.

Bake better, Boil quicker, and Broil nicer than any Oil or Gas Stove manufactured, and was awarded the Gold Medal at the ATLANTA EXPOSITION for "Safety, great variety and perfect arrangement of the heating and cooking apparatus." This award was made over a contest with Coal, Oil, Gas and Vapor Stoves.

These Stoves took the HIGHEST AWARD of Paris, France, Exposition, 1878.
Cincinnati, Ohio, do. 1879.
Toronto, Canada, do. 1879.
Worcester, Mass., do. 1880.
BRONZE MEDAL at World's Fair, Melbourne, Australia, 1880.
HIGHEST AWARD at Industrial Exposition, Providence, R. I., 1881.
GOLD MEDAL at International Cotton Exposition at Atlanta, Ga. 1881.

Don't Fail to see the Wire-Gauze, Non-Explosive in operation, at J. O. CROOKER'S Hard Ware Store, opposite the recent Great Fire in Norway Village.

Also a large stock of HARDWARE, Cutlery, Haying Tools, and other seasonable goods, for sale at lowest prices.

J. O. CROOKER.

Norway, June 20, 1882.

MANHOOD

HOW LOST, HOW RESTORED!

Just Published, a new edition of DR. CULVERWELL'S CELEBRATED ESSAY on the radical cure of Spermatorrhœa or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, Impotency, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, etc.; also, Consumption, Epilepsy and Fits, induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance, &c.

The celebrated author, in this admiral Essay clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.

☞ This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land.

Sent under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address, post-paid, on receipt of six cents or two postage stamps. Address

THE CULVERWELL MEDICAL CO.,
41 Ann St., New York, N. Y.
Post Office Box 450.

BOAT TO LET!

A first-class Dory can be hired by the hour, day or week. Inquire of

E. W. BARTLETT.

Mixed Paints

Of all kinds, and in any quantity, at NOYES' DRUG & BOOK STORE.

OXFORD CO. ADVERTISER

Norway and Vicinity

"The man who has a thousand friends,
Has not a friend to spare,
But he who owes one man a cent
Will meet him everywhere."

Send an ADVERTISER to your absent friends.

Cheap-side proposes to put in concrete sidewalks.

Rev. Messrs. Wiswall and Spring exchange next Sabbath.

Don't forget to tell us the items you wish to see them in print.

The lumber at the Steep Falls shingle handle factory is all sawed out.

Mrs. F. H. Lovering of West Waterford is visiting relatives in this village.

It is reported that A. S. Kimball, Esq., of Waterford, is to open a law office in this place.

It is expected that the old Ampi Quartette will sing at the two churches in this village next Sunday.

Capt. W. W. Whitmarsh of the Elm House troubled the water Tuesday night and caught five bass.

Regular meeting of the Oxford Lodge No. 18 F. & A. M., at their hall next Monday evening.

Mr. Albert Thomas, proprietor and landlord of the Andover House, Andover, Me., was in town Monday.

Geo. Libby at the Falls has picked and sold bushels of green peas. He has had early potatoes and string beans from his garden.

Mrs. Chas. D. Noble and family of Oberlin, Ohio, and Miss Ellen Brown of Portland, are visiting Mrs. T. Brown, at the Falls.

We hope our correspondents will call and see us when in town. We will be welcomed even on our busy day. Send us the local news.

If you owe the ADVERTISER anything on the old score, before the fire we would like to have you settle. We mean you. Nobody else.

It is generally understood that Samuel B. Locke of West Paris, is shortly to go into partnership with W. Whitcomb, trader and clothing manufacturer of this place.

Chas. L. Hathaway and family have moved into their new house on Main street this week. The house was formerly owned by Lewis O'Brion, Esq.

The ADVERTISER list is constantly increasing. It will soon be back numbers to where it was before the fire. If your paper does not come regularly, please notify us.

Through the efforts of J. A. Bryant some $10 has been raised for the benefit of Miss Lizzie Mason, organist of the Reform Club, Ladies' Aid and Juvenile Temperance Societies.

Mr. W. Z. Brown has resigned his position as bookkeeper in the shoe factory and will shortly go to Cover, Conn. Miss Anna Griffin of Lewiston takes the position as bookkeeper in the factory.

Mrs. L. Pennell of Portland, recently visited us and highly praised the generous proprietor of the Willis cottage of Gorham, N. H. She claims that to be the place above all others to stop when visiting Gorham.

Mrs. Susan Kelley, on Paris Street, has a very fine residence. The house is two story and a half high, and is new and has been built with great care throughout. Mrs. K. occupies the second story and will rent the balance of the house. The house and lot are finished will be very attractive. It is one of the prettiest houses on the street.

School in district No. 10 closed Saturday the 8th. Whole number attending school, 13; average number, 12. The following did not lose a time: Lena Millett, Mercy Millett, Sadie Millett, Susie Millett, Ida Millett, Fred Millett, Rust Jackson, Sallie Jackson.

A correspondent complains of being kept awake nights by hounds continually yelping on Pike hill, and advocates that if their owners wish to pay taxes on them another year, they better keep them confined at home. Now we object to any such arrangement. We hold to give the poor dogs the greatest amount of liberty. We would be glad to have all the dogs in town take an excursion to the White Mountains. If they should there be plenty of game, and become so attached to the climate as to forever remain there that far-off land, we will try and be patient. We think we know some dogs of confined hounds in the neighborhood where we stop nights, and have a permanent job forced on us every morning before breakfast, which is to nail on boards and laths on the hen-coop, torn off during our absence by hungry dogs. We are using large quantities of Paris green, and if there is any danger of our neighbor's dogs getting so hungry as to feed on the dead potato bugs, we advise them to double-up their daily rations, and if if home attractions cannot be made sufficiently strong to prevent these domestic household daisy from devouring the hen coop.

AIGN PRESS

ose of furthering the good ing political campaign, the Press propose to issue their ly Editions at the following low rates, barely covering rial and postage.

aine State Press

l - fernished, beginning with ssued next after the receipt of r case, and closing with the th, containing a report of the ss, - - - 25 Cents.

Daily Press!

ished, beginning with the num- after receipt of order in each ng with the issue of Sept. 15th. s from Maine Election:

opies, by mail, $1.00.

in all cases be prepaid by the ill contain complete political ation besides the customary business and miscellaneous committees and others desirous of the right can do no more than to aid in the dissemina- ting matter. Address.

D PUBLISHING CO., PORTLAND, ME.

ALL COMPETITORS

THE T RUNNING W HOME

SIMPLE

SWIFT

WING MACHINE

IN EVERY PARTICULAR IMPROVEMENTS THAN ALL WING MACHINES COMBINED

EW HOME NG MACHINE CO- ON SQUARE, NEW YORK

AGO, ILL. ORANGE, MASS. TLANTA, GA.

FOR SALE BY

EMEMBER THE

s & Westlake

Gauze, Non-Explosive

STOVES,

ter, Boil quicker, and Broil ny Oil or Gas Stove manu- nd was awarded the Gold he ATLANTA EXPOSI- "Safety, great variety and ngement of the heating and paratus." This award was a contest with Coal, Oil, apor Stoves.

oves took the HIGHEST of Paris, France, Exposi- 1878.
Ohio, do. 1879.
made, do. 1879.
Mass., do. 1880.
E MEDAL at World's Fair, Australia, 1880.
ST AWARD at Industrial Providence, R. I., 1881.
MEDAL at International osition at Atlanta, Ga. 1881.
ail to see the Wire-Gauze, ers in operation, at J. O. 'S Hard Ware Store, oppo- ent Great Fire in Norway ge stock of HARDWARE, ping Tools, and other sea- ds, for sale at lowest prices.

J. O. CROOKER.

June 20, 1882.

NHOOD

ST, HOW RESTORED!

shed, a new edition of DR. CUL- CELEBRATED ESSAY on the of Spermatorrhœa or Seminal voluntary Seminal Losses, Im- ual and Physical Incapacity, Im- Marriage, etc.; also, Consump- and Fits, induced by self-indul- al extravagance, &c.

ted author, in this admirable Essay nstrates from a thirty years' suc- ce, that the alarming consequen- nse may be radically cured: a mode of cure at once simple, effectual, by means of which er, no matter what his condition cure himself cheaply, privately, ecture should be in the hands of and every man in the land. sent, in a plain envelope, to any paid, on receipt of SIX cents or stamps. Address ass Dory can be hired by y or week. Inquire of E. W. BARTLETT.

LVERWELL MEDICAL CO., ., New York, N. Y. Post Office Box 450.

AT TO LET!

xed Paints

ds, and in any quantity, at DRUG & BOOK STORE.

OXFORD CO. ADVERTISER

Norway and Vicinity.

"The man who has a thousand friends,
Has not a friend to spare,
But he who owes one man a cent
Will meet him everywhere!"

Send an ADVERTISER to your absent friends.

Cheap-side proposes to put in concrete sidewalks.

Rev. Messrs. Wiswall and Sprague exchange next Sabbath.

Don't forget to tell us the items if you wish to see them in print.

The lumber at the Steep Falls shovel handle factory is all sawed out.

Mrs. F. H. Lovering of West Medford is visiting relatives in this village.

It is reported that A. S. Kimball, Esq., of Waterford, is to open a law office in this place.

It is expected that the old Amphion Quartette will sing at the two churches in this village next Sunday.

Capt. W. W. Whitmarsh of the Elm House troubled the water Tuesday night and caught five bass.

Regular meeting of the Oxford Lodge No. 18 F. & A. M., at their hall next Monday evening.

Mr. Albert Thomas, proprietor and landlord of the Andover House, Andover, Me., was in town Monday.

Geo. Libby at the Falls has picked and sold bushels of green peas. He has had early potatoes and string beans from his garden.

Mrs. Chas. D. Noble and family of Oberlin, Ohio, and Miss Ellen Brown of Portland, are visiting Mrs. T. O. Brown, at the Falls.

We hope our correspondents will call and see us when in town. You will be welcomed even on our busiest day. Send us the local news.

If you owe the ADVERTISER anything on the old score, before the fire, we would like to have you settle. We mean you. Nobody else.

It is generally understood that Samuel B. Locke of West Paris, is shortly to go into partnership with W. H. Whitcomb, trader and clothing manufacturer of this place.

Chas. L. Hathaway and family have moved into their new house on Main street this week. The house was formerly owned by Lewis O'Brion, Esq.

The ADVERTISER list is constantly increasing. It will soon be back in numbers to where it was before the fire. If your paper does not come regularly, please notify us.

Through the efforts of J. A. Brown, some $10 has been raised for the benefit of Miss Lizzie Mason, organist, for the Reform Club, Ladies' Aid and Juvenile Temperance Societies.

Mr. W. Z. Brown has resigned his position as bookkeeper in the shoe factory and will shortly go to Coventry, Conn. Miss Anna Griffin of Lynn, takes the position as bookkeeper in the factory.

Mrs. L. Pennell of Portland, recently visited us and highly praised the generous proprietor of the Willis Cottage of Gorham, N. H. She claims that to be the place above all others to stop when visiting Gorham.

Mrs. Susan Kelley, on Paris Street, has a very fine residence. The house is two story and a half high, and is new and has been built with great care throughout. Mrs. K. occupies the second story and will rent the balance of the house. The house and lot when finished will be very attractive. It is one of the prettiest houses on the street.

School in district No. 10 closed on Saturday the 8th. Whole number attending school, 13; average number, 12. The following did not lose any time: Lena Millett, Mercy Millett, Sadie Millett, Susie Millett, Robert Millett, Fred Millett, Rust Jackson, Sallie Jackson.

A correspondent complains of being kept awake nights by hounds continually yelping on Pike hill, and insinuates that if their owners wish to pay taxes on them another year, they had better keep them confined at home. Now we object to any such arrangement. We hold to give the poor hound the greatest amount of liberty. We would be glad to have all the dogs in town take an excursion to the Rocky Mountains. If they should there find plenty of game, and become so attached to the climate as to forever remain in that far-off land, we will try and be patient. We think we know something of confined hounds in the neighborhood where we stop nights, and we have a permanent job forced on to us every morning before breakfast, which is to nail on boards and laths on our hen-coop, torn off during our absence by hungry dogs. We are using large quantities of Paris green, and if there is any danger of our neighbor's dogs getting so hungry as to feed on our dead potato bugs, we advise them to double-up their daily rations, and see if home attractions cannot be made sufficiently strong to prevent these domestic household daisy from devouring our hen coop.

Mason Bros. change their adv. this week.

Mrs. Akers and daughter have returned from their visit to New Hampshire.

J. O. Crooker is lowering his Fairbanks platform scales so they will be more convenient.

Prof. Burton and wife of Plymouth Mass., have been in town this week as the guests of Dr. Tilton.

The Ladies' Circle of the Universalist Society had a pleasant time Tuesday with Mrs. E. W. Howe and Mrs. Geo. Merrill.

Mr. Elbridge, foreman of the upper room of the shoe factory, has rented the house on Pleasant Street next to Mr. C.L. Hathaway's lately occupied by Mr. Grover.

Mr. Dexter Hawkins of New York, is spending a few days in our village with his brother. Mr. Hawkins delivered an able address at the commencement of Bridgton Academy, where he was at one time pupil and professor.

D. D. G. M. D. S. Knapp of South Paris installed the officers of Norway Lodge No. 16 I. O. O. F. last Tuesday evening. The officers for the current term are as follows:

N. G., W. W. Hooper; V. G., E. Ames; R. S., J. W. Crommett; Treas., J. A. Brown; War., J. Grant; Con. J. Devine; R. S. N. G., C. F. Whitman; L. S. N. G., C. F. Millett; R. S. V. G., Frank Seavey; L. S. V. G., A. B. Richardson; I. G., S. F. Stearns; O. G., A. Thurlow; R. S. S., Fred Stevens; Chaplain, E. W. Howe.

We received an anonymous communication complaining of two boys, one in particular which is set forth as being a very bad and brutal fellow. It alleges that these two bad boys put live coals of fire on another little boy's bare feet last Sunday, and otherwise tortured him. The boys names are given though we withhold them. We would suggest to the party who made the complaint the propriety of signing their name to all articles they may have occasion to send to a newspaper office. We do not wish to publish the name, but simply to know who is responsible. Please remember this.

The Ordway house on Pleasant St. has been undergoing extended repairs. The property is owned by H. M. Bearce, Esq., and the house is occupied by Mr. Samuel Freeman, a carpenter by trade, who has been remodeling it, under the direction of Mr. Bearce for some weeks. The paint recently added by Mr. Small makes the building show off to good advantage. One would hardly know it so great has been the change. Its nearness to the business portion of the village makes it a very desirable place.

The Juvenile Temperance Society held a meeting last Sabbath evening in the place of the regular Reform Club meeting. The children wore their regalia and were out in good numbers. All the parts were well executed and the exercises which consisted of recitations, declamations and singing were very interesting. Much credit is due the president, Mrs. Lewis O'Brion and other officers of the society as well as the children for so creditable an entertainment. A collection was taken in order to get funds to procure certificates of membership for children who compose the society. We understand that between four and five dollars was raised.

The remains of Mrs. Sarah Foster were brought here from Nashua, N. H., for interment Saturday. The deceased was 91 years of age, and formerly a resident of this place. She died at the home of her daughter Mrs. A. M. Morton, of Nashua. Mrs. Foster was a native of Groton, Mass. She has resided for a long time in Lowell as well as at East Boston. Her children were Mrs. Morton, Mrs. Chas. S. Whitehouse of Rochester, N. H., Mrs. Mary K. Frost of this town, and one son, Mr. Amos Foster, who is now traveling in the southwest. The greater part of her married life was spent in this place. She survived her husband about 40 years. The deceased was a noble woman and served her day and generation faithfully, being a most devoted wife and mother and a kind and considerate neighbor.

Mr. Otis O. Roberts, of Dexter, Me., is canvassing this village and the county for Rev. T. Garrish's "Army Life or Personal Reminiscences of the Late Rebellion." These sketches were published in the Belfast Journal during the past year and have attracted a good deal of attention. They make a volume of over 400 pages. The work is now going through the press and will be ready to deliver to subscribers by the middle of next month. The book will be substantially bound and sold for the remarkably low sum of $1.50. We doubt not the book is well worth the money and the time bestowed in reading it. It is unanimously endorsed by every paper in the State. Look at the prospectus and satisfy yourself whether you want to read it or not. Mr. Roberts, the canvasser, saw service with the 6th Maine Regiment in the late "unpleasantness" and returned a cripple having lost a foot.

Rowe, the barber, moves into his new shop, this week.

We hope the circus bill boards will come down soon.

Mr. Snell, of Mechanic Falls, has moved into Joel Crooker's house on Water Street.

Dr. Jones and Geo. Holmes recently went to Stoneham trout fishing and brought home over 200 fish.

Prof. H. P. Forbes, of St. Lawrence University, will preach Sunday at the Universalist Church.

Mrs. L. C. Pennell, of Portland, we understand, has made arrangements to deliver her lecture "Sickness vs. Smells" at the Congregationalist Church, next Sabbath at 3 o'clock p. m.

The Agent of Lewis Red Jacket Bitters was in town Thursday. This popular Bitter is preferred at New Haven Conn. and has met with a wonderful sale wherever introduced. Liver disorders, Dyspepsia and Debility readily yeild to it and immediate effects are felt. Purely a vegetable preparation scientifically compounded.

We would express our thanks to Sylvanus Cobb Jr., for the receipt of $5.00 which he begs us to accept as payment for his paper for the current year. Mr. Cobb was paid up and a good deal more so, at the time of the fire and it seems to us that five dollars for the ADVERTISER, is a large amount of money for a small amount of paper, however, we will not complain but accept the free-will offering thankfully.

Geo. R. Howe, son of Freeland Howe Esq., and four of his college chums, H. F. Edwards, College Hill, Mass., F. C. Bueno, San Paulo, Brazel, A. W. Peirce, Arlington Mass., and C. W. Gerould, Chicago, started on a camping-out expedition around the mountains, Wednesday. Fred S. Sanford of this place also belongs to the party. They took a team along with them to carry their baggage and camp equipments, but the boys are to make the journey on foot. They expect to be absent three or four weeks.

Wm. B. Clark died very suddenly last Monday at his father's residence, on Paris Street. He had been sick with a fever and was supposed to be out of danger and convalescent. His sudden death is attributed to heart disease. Mr. Clark was about 25 years of age and a very promising young man and will be greatly missed. He was an active member of the Methodist Church of this place and was, at the time of his death, Superintendent of the Sabbath School. For a number of years past he had worked in the shoe factory.

Two fishermen of this village while out fishing last week thought they discovered a swarm of bees in a tree. On returning they made known their discovery to Charles Penley, a renowned bee-liner, who immediately entered into negotiations for the bees. He was to have the bees and the finders of the swarm were to have the honey. Penley visited the owner of the tree, Mr. F. R. Gammon, and paid him one dollar for the privilege of cutting down the tree. The party went out to capture the swarm and get the honey. "Billy," who is blessed with a good appetite, ordered a loaf of dry bread, remarking to his companions, "never mind the butter, bread and honey is the order of the day." They cut the tree down and upon examination found it contained only hornets—no bees, no honey. They returned home after swearing to each other that they would keep the matter a secret. The whole thing has become public, however. It leaked out somehow, and now it is, "How many hornets does it take to make a swarm of bees?" The question is often evaded in stronger language than becomes us to print. When they find bees and honey we hope they will remember the editor.

NOTICE.

Harry Rust Post G. A. R. meet the first Friday in each month, at Grange Hall, at 8 o'clock, P. M.

Norway Lake.

Rev. A. Wiswall delivered a fine discourse at our school house on Sunday at 5, P. M. It is very pleasant to note how the partition fences between the different churches, and even the high walls that fence out all the good and great of society if they happen to fail in some particular spiritual experience, are being broken by the better thought of our best religious speakers. When the feeling is still further eliminated from the church members that they are better than other people, simply because they belong to some church, regardless of their acts, the better it will be not only for the church, but the world as well.

Born—At the residence of Hiram Hathaway, July 17, to the wife of Mr. Chas. T. Witt of Boston, a son.

Mr. Geo. Witt and wife, of Boston, are spending a few days at his father's home in town.

J. A. Bolster offers his farm for sale, with crops, for $2,000.

Farmers are very busy cutting their hay. A few will finish this week, and others have just commenced. The crop will be a little above the average, perhaps.

North Norway.

Mrs. Sarah Whitmarsh's remains were brought to Norway Center from Nashua, N. H., and buried by the side of her second husband, Mr. Nathan Foster. Mrs. W. was nearly 91 years old.

H. S. Judkins' family, from Boston, are boarding at Rollin Towne's this summer.

Mrs. Edward Whittle is quite sick, and her friends almost despair of her recovery. Her daughter, Mrs. Mary Hall from Austin, Nevada, is visiting her now.

Mr. W. H. Tracy recently lost a valuable cow.

July 13th, a Quarterly meeting at the Methodist Chapel. The presiding elder, Rev. Mr. Allen, preached a very effective discourse.

The Sabbath School at No. Norway is largely attended this summer. 115 scholars last Sabbath. S.

South Paris.

Weather warm.

Vegetation booms.

Corn has been trying to compete with Jonah's gourd in its growth for the last few days.

Green peas now appease the hunger of many households.

Dwight Wise, son of Mr. Geo. Wise, was bitten by the Paris Hill coach dog on Monday. The flesh was lacerated, but no very serious results are expected. Mr. Victor Greenleaf, in alighting from the coach, was also attacked by the same dog, and one limb felt the force of canine ivory.

Mrs. Frank Wise has been ill for several days, but it is believed that, with constant care, recovery will gradually take place.

Mrs. Alvin Rice appears somewhat improved in health. Mr. Lovejoy, of Norway, has assisted Mr. Rice in the care of the sick for the past few days.

Mrs. James Deering, after a sickness of 17 weeks, enjoyed a carriage ride last Saturday.

Mr. H. N. Bolster now occupies the D. N. True store, while his own building is undergoing extensive repairs.

Mr. Levi Rawson has moved into the lower part of Mrs. Tuell's house, adjoining the Savings' Bank. VIDI.

Mr. Isaac Cummings recently met with a severe accident. He was driving his oxen into the barn when the wheels struck in some way, and the oxen turned round striking one end of the yoke against Mr. C. breaking three of his ribs.

Wheeler & Shurtleff, insurance agents, have dissolved. Mr. Shurtleff goes out and Mr. Wheeler will in the future conduct the business alone.

Mr. Frank Hayden of Boston is stopping at Mrs. Lombard's, opposite the fair grounds. He has with him the trotting stallion, Eclair, owned by Chas. Kimball of Rumford, and the roan mare, Cassandra, owned by Mr. Price of Rumford.

W. W. Shaw's trotting mare so familiar to So. Parisites, lost her foal Jumbo last week. It never rains but it pours. Last Tuesday Mr. Shaw's mare started from the village and ran all the way home at a gait that would discount a forty horse, going into the stable on the jump, fortunately breaking only the whiffle tree.

Among the arrivals at the hotel this week we notice Mr. and Mrs. Akeley of Boston, Mr. Bradford and family of Salem, N. H., Mr. Kyle G. Wilson and our former townsman, Harry Colby.

Mrs. Andrews, the genial landlady of our village hotel, returned from Boston this week and received a welcome smile from her contented guests.

Mr. R. R. Bangs of Casco, was in town the other day looking at the corner store of the I. O. O. F. Block, and talks of setting up a gents furnishing goods store therein.

Last week as Mrs. Geo. A. Wilson and a lady friend of Mass. were driving towards Norway village, their horse shied at a wheelbarrow load of hay standing by the fair grounds, and becoming frightened broke into a rapid run. One of the holdback straps broke which complicated matters still more, but owing to the coolness and superior horsemanship of Mrs. W., the horse was stopped without further damage, and what promised at one time to be a serious accident was skillfully averted.

Geo. E. Pratt, wife and child are stopping in town on a visit.

The water at the mills is low, and work by water power is stopped at the furniture factory.

W. B. Clark died very suddenly last Monday of typhoid pneumonia.

A. Prince, traveling salesman for S. and J. Myers of Boston, formerly the largest wholesale jewelry establishment in the country, was in town last Monday with a tempting assortment of diamonds.

Master Frank Knapp of this village has just been engaged by the little island theatricals of Peaks Island to play the cornet for them during the season.

Dr. Staples of Portland, has rented an office in the I. O. O. F. block.

MARRIED

In Oxford, July 15th, by Rev. F. L. Butler, Mr. E. C. Ambrose, Esq., and Miss Abbie C. W. Faunce, both of Oxford.

DIED

In Norway, July 17th, Wm. B. Clark, aged 25 years and 9 months.

In Otisfield, July 17th, Miss Ida M. Kemp, aged 24 years and 4 months.

In Brockton, Mass., July 17th, Mrs. Jennie E., wife of Albert Bolster, aged 30 years and 3 months.

J. U. P. BURNHAM,
PHOTOGRAPHER!!
Cottage St.,
NORWAY, ME,

☞Photography in all its branches, at reasonable prices. Copies, Views, &c.

SPECIALTIES
For 10 Cents!
—AT—Variety Store.

One Quart FRUIT JARS; Mason's Patent—Boyd's Porcelain Lined Covers.
LADIES' HOSE.
Six qt. Stamped PANS.
Bronze Images, Soap Shakers, Picture Frames, } usually sold for 25c.
☞Also hundreds of useful articles in Crockery, Glass, Tin, Fancy Goods and Yankee Notions.
Norway, July 14, 1882. 1m*

NICE
Mowing Machine Oil,
10 Cents per pint, at
NOYES' DRUG STORE.

L. L. Howard, Jr.
WOULD like to say to those wishing CEMETERY WORK that he has added the MARBLE to his GRANITE BUSINESS, and with the Granite & Marble
united, and a number of years' experience, believes that he is safe in saying that he can give them as good work, and at lower prices than any one in Oxford County. If you do not believe it, call, and he will tell you the reason why.
He employs no agent, but if parties wishing work will drop him a card, he will call and see them, and give them the benefit of agent's pay.
In short, he wishes to say that he will make every effort to give those who employ him their money's worth.
POLISHED GRANITE a speciality.
URNS! or anything in the Cemetery line, furnished.
L. L. HOWARD, Jr.
Norway, Me., July 7, 1882.
N. B.—No business from sunset Friday, to sunset Saturday.

WANTED!
A GOOD CAPABLE WOMAN to do House Work in a small family of three persons. Permanent situation and good wages.
H. P. ELLIOTT.
North Waterford, July 7, 1882.

NOTICE!
Having just received the Latest Styles in CARDS, I am ready to furnish them, written in the neatest manner, for 20 cents per dozen.
E. W. BARTLETT.
Norway, July 7, 1882.

PURE PARIS GREEN
—AND—
Squash Bug Exterminator, at
NOYES' DRUG STORE.

Pure Paris Green!
At CROCKETT'S DRUG STORE.

BARGAINS IN HAMMOCKS
Croquet Sets, at Crockett's Drug Store.

Cool Soda!
At CROCKETT'S DRUG STORE.

TRADE MARK REGISTERED.

Are you suffering from FEVER AND AGUE AND MALARIA?
"LEWIS' RED JACKET BITTERS" is the only known PURELY VEGETABLE preparation, now before the public, that will effect a quick and sure cure. It never fails!
Contains No Mineral Or Poisonous Substance.
FREE FROM SEDIMENT.
Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Rheumatism, Sick Headache, Constipation, Sour Eructations of the Stomach and Nervousness, invariably yield to the vegetable remedies in "Lewis' Red Jacket Bitters."
FEMALE DIFFICULTIES
in Young or Old, Married or Single, yield readily to this invaluable "family" medicine.
Liver Complaint, Biliousness, Jaundice.
"Lewis' Red Jacket Bitters" Stimulates the inactive "Liver" to healthfully exert itself, relieves the Bowels, not violently, but effectually, and strengthens the Stomach.
Read what Eminent New Haven Physicians and Chemists say, Graduates of the Great University
YALE COLLEGE.
New Haven, Conn. June 8th, 1882.
Mess'rs LEWIS & CO., Gentlemen.
From a careful consideration of the formula of the "Red Jacket Bitters" prepared by you, I am unable to discover anything of a Mineral or deleterious nature among the ingredients entering into its composition.
Very Truly Yours,
William D. Anderson, M. D.
New Haven, Conn. June 8th, 1882.
Mess'rs LEWIS & CO.,
Having examined the formula, and subjected to a careful analysis the preparation known as "Red Jacket Bitters," I hereby certify to the fact that it contains no Mineral or poisonous substance, and is composed of excellent material.
V. M. DOW, M. D.
LEWIS & CO., Proprietors New Haven Conn.
Sold by Druggists. Pamphlet free, send for one.

ALL KINDS OF Books, Stationery,
Cards, Tags, &c.,
can be found at Noyes' Drug and Book Store, Norway.

CROCKETT'S
New Drug Store!!
I am pleased to announce that I am back again in the New Hathaway Block,
And that I have a larger and better stock than ever before, of DRUGS!
Patent Medicines, Books, Stationery,
Room Papers,
WINDOW SHADES & FIXTURES,
Bird Cages, Croquet Sets, Hammocks, Cigars, Tobacco, Confectionery, Toilet Articles, Sponges, Chamois Skin, Fishing Tackle!
and hundreds of articles too numerous to mention. In fact everything usually kept in a FIRST CLASS DRUG STORE!
Physicians Prescriptions a specialty.
S. R. CROCKETT,
Registered Apothecary,
June 24, 1882. Norway, Me.

LOOK OUT FOR THE GAMEY BASS
next month! All kinds of tackle for capturing them found at Noyes' Drug and Book Store.

LATEST STYLES OF BABY CARRIAGES, direct from the manufactory, at lowest cash prices, at Noyes' Drug and Book Store.

FOR THE BEST TRADES IN HAMMOCKS!
Croquet Sets, Boys' Wagons, B'd Cages, and all kinds of Fishing Tackle,
call at Noyes' Drug Store, Norway.
☞All goods first-class, and lowest prices.

New Fly Paper and Insect Powder,
In quantities to suit, at NOYES' DRUG AND BOOK STORE, Norway, Me.

Special Bargains
—IN—
MILLINERY!
For the next 30 Days.
We have a large stock of HATS, FLOWERS, LACES, &c., that we are offering at prices lower than you can buy elsewhere.
These goods we shall sell at prices which will be satisfactory to our customers.
☞Please call and get prices.
M. E. CROCKETT.

AT COST!
Now is the time!
This is the place!
Ladies avail yourselves of this opportunity. You may never have a chance to purchase goods at such bargains again.
As my store is to undergo thorough repairs this fall, I offer my entire stock
Of Millinery at Cost
during the remainder of the summer, in order that I may reduce the same.
☞Don't think this is mere talk; I mean just what I say.
Remember the time is now!
The place, the store of Mrs. A. B. CHASE,
Beal's Block, Norway, Me.

Haying Tools!!
Farmers we offer FIRST CLASS GOODS at the following prices in order to close them out. You will save money by calling early.
Clipper Scythes, each, 70 cents.
Champion " " 75 "
Golden Harvest do. " 78 "
Scythe Snaths, 54c, 57 each.
Hand Rakes, 47 cents.
Hay Forks,—three tines, 45 "
Scythe Stones, 5 " and other goods at the same low prices.
The INDIA STEEL or "WITHERELL" Scythe.
The RUBBER COATED Scythe.
Bush Scythes and Snaths.
Drag Rakes—a big stock.
Warrior Mower, Walter A. Wood's Mower, Thomas Horse Rakes, CHAMPION SELF DUMP RAKES,
NEW CHAMPION RAKES;
All first-class goods at low prices. Call and see us.
MASON BROTHERS.
Shackley Store, NORWAY.

Large Assortment
—OF—
ROOM PAPERS
—AND—
BORDERS.
To be found in Oxford County, at Noyes' Drug and Book Store, Norway.
☞All papers trimmed free.

NEWS OF THE DAY

GENERAL ITEMS.

—Eight boys are reported by telegraph dead or dying from lockjaw, the result of wounds inflicted by toy pistols.

—At Washington, Pa., a good looking white lady named Miss Venie Clokey married a colored man clandestinely, and her relatives have secured her incarceration in an insane asylum on that account.

—A large number of Italians, employed by the railroad companies in New York City, have joined the strikers, and the latter are much encouraged thereby.

—In the Scioto disaster investigation William McCormick, of Moundsville, a saloon-keeper, swore that Pilot Keller, of the Scioto, was so drunk in his place that the barkeeper refused to give him liquor, advising him to go to bed and sleep it off. The barkeeper contradicted McCormick's evidence in every particular.

—Fire destroyed a mill at Lima, O.; a sawmill and lumber yard at Ogema, Wis.; a cotton mill at Oakland, R. I., and drug stores at York, Pa., and Poughkeepsie, N. Y., the loss aggregating $247,000.

—A terrible accident occurred on the Hudson River West Shore Railroad on Thursday by the premature explosion of a blast. Three laborers were killed and nine others seriously injured.

—A terrible accident occurred at Excelsior Station, Northumberland county, Pa., on Thursday, which resulted in the death of three men. It was caused by a fall of rock while the men were examining the mine.

—It is reported that a number of Americans who went across the Rio Grande into Mexico ostensibly for the purpose of hunting up lost stock have been captured by the Mexican authorities, thrown into prison and whipped.

—A special to the Little Rock Gazette from Texarkana says: "Lightning struck Ghio's new three-story brick building to-night, and the walls fell on Paragon's saloon, crushing it to atoms. About thirty lives were lost."

—The Virginia Democratic State Central Committee has decided not to nominate a candidate for Congressman-at-Large either by the committee or by a convention.

—Captain John Story, Jr., of the schooner Waverley, of Rockport, is reported as having discovered a valuable fishing ground fifty-five miles east by north of St. Ann, C. B. The fish were abundant and of superior quality, and the grounds are reported to be far better than the Grand Banks.

—The North Carolina Democratic State Convention nominated J. H. Fussell as its candidate for Governor.

—One of the fishing vessels at the Banks of Newfoundland picked up four shipwrecked men who had been drifting about for four days and nights.

—The second sanguinary collision of the striking freight handlers with the Italians who are in the places they vacated took place Tuesday on the Erie piers, in Jersey City, the freight handlers being fired upon by the Italians. Seven strikers were wounded and one Italian was drowned.

—A meeting of indignation at the provision in the Naval appropriation bill virtually placing the navy yards at the mercy of contractors was held in Portsmouth, N. H. Mayor Sise, of Portsmouth, presided, and speeches were made by leading citizens. A series of resolutions was adopted and a delegation appointed to go to Washington.

—Charles Simpkins, aged eleven years, and William Van Vorst, aged twelve, were drowned while bathing at Johnstown, N. Y.

—The State Committee of the Vermont National Greenback Labor Party have issued a call for a State Convention at Waterbury on August 15.

—Saturday a small boat capsized on Lake Michigan, off Muskegon, and five men were drowned.

—While stealing a ride in a freight car on a Pennsylvania railroad two tramps were killed by an accident to the train.

—A fire at Coopersville, Mich., destroyed the house of E. F. Lillie. Two children, aged six and four were burned.

—The turnkey of the jail in Minneapolis, Minn., was knocked down by Thomas Howard, of Chicago, held on a charge of shooting Henry Reed. Howard took the turnkey's keys, and, with eight other prisoners, escaped.

—The inmates of the Soldiers' Home, at Dayton, are circulating petitions begging Congress not to pass the Manager bill deducting a portion of their pension money for the support of the Home.

—According to a report of the Hebrew Emigrant Aid Society, 6,832 Russian refugees have arrived in New York since the beginning of the emigration.

—A water spout in Arkansas tore up a strip of country half a mile wide, but injured no person.

—Engineer Melville has been granted leave to return home from Siberia with Noros and Ninderman.

—Fifty-three bodies of the lost on the Scioto have been recovered from the Ohio River, one of which is yet unidentified. Four more are missing.

WASHINGTON NOTES.

—Advices from Admiral Nicholson lead to the belief that the American residents of Alexandria have suffered no harm. Inquiry having been made by the American Board of Foreign Missions, Secretary Frelinghuysen telegraphed to the Vice-Consul asking as to the safety of the missionaries. He received an answer to the effect that they were either on our vessels or had gone into the interior.

—The River and Harbor bill was taken up in the Senate on Wednesday. A number of amendments were made increasing the amount of the bill to $20,000,000, and it was then passed by 39 yeas to 23 nays.

—The Senate added to the River and Harbor bill as it came from the Commerce Committee $763,600, making a total of $20,247,570, or about $9,000,000 more than the largest River and Harbor bill ever before passed.

—The Senate has passed the House bill appropriating $800,000 for a post office and court building in Brooklyn.

—The July returns of the Department of Agriculture from all the States and Territories of the United States indicate an increase of area planted in corn exceeding four per cent., or fully two and a half million acres.

—The bill authorizing national banks to extend the period of their corporate existence passed the House.

—The Census Bureau has just issued a special bulletin showing the extent and value of the fishing industries of New Hampshire, Rhode Island and Connecticut, as follows:—In the fisheries of New Hampshire, 414 persons and a capital of $209,465 are employed and the value of the products is $176,684. The Rhode Island fisheries employ 2,310 persons and $596,678 capital, and the value of the products is $880,915. The fisheries of Connecticut employ 3,131 persons and $1,421,020 capital, and the value of the products amounts to $1,456,866.

—The Census Bureau has issued a special bulletin showing the number and size of the farms in the United States in 1880, and the tenure by which they were held. The number of farms was 4,008,907. Of these 2,984,306 were occupied by the owners, 322,357 were rented at a fixed money rental, and 702,244 were rented for shares of the products. Of the total number of farms, 4,352 were less than 3 acres in extent, 134,889 were above 3 acres and less than 10, 254,749 were between 10 and 20 acres, 781,474 were between 20 and 50 acres, 1,032,910 were between 50 and 100 acres, 1,695,983 were between 100 and 500 acres, 75,972 were between 500 and 1,000 acres, and 28,578 were 1,000 acres in extent and upward.

—General Brown gives notice that he shall object to any more personal debates in the House, especially in contested election cases.

FOREIGN ITEMS.

—Two brothers named Flaherty, who recently returned from America, have been arrested in the north part of county Kerry on suspicion of complicity in the Phœnix Park murders. They were remanded for a week.

—Thirteen counties of Ireland are to be proclaimed under the Repression act.

—A steamer from China with a cargo of tea went ashore in the Suez Canal and was plundered by Arabs.

—The British Government is preparing for a campaign in Egypt.

—A train with 217 persons on board ran off the rails between Tcherny and Bastijeur, Russia. One hundred and seventy-eight persons were killed and those who were saved were more or less injured.

—During the bombardment at Alexandria a telephone was attached at Malta to the Mediterranean cable, and though it was impossible to communicate verbally, the bombardment was plainly audible at a distance of 1,000 miles from Alexandria.

—An explosion of gas on Wednesday in Rue Louis Philippe, Paris, destroyed twelve houses. Twenty persons were killed and forty injured. One hundred were rendered homeless. The explosion was the result of a fire, nobody having thought at the outbreak of the fire to cut off the gas.

—The Porte, on learning that Admiral Seymour had opened fire, implored Lord Granville to order him to cease the bombardment.

—The British Consul at Port Said has stopped ships from entering the Suez Canal.

—The British Secretary of War states that he does not expect the military preparations will cause the ordinary expenditures to be exceeded.

—The bombardment of Alexandria by the English fleet began Tuesday morning at 4 o'clock. All the neutral vessels steamed out of the harbor before the firing commenced. The American ships Lancaster and Quinnebaug lay outside watching the fight.

—The Paris Gaulois professes to know that General Skobeleff committed suicide in order to escape an exposure of his connection with the Nihilists.

—Gen. Skobeleff, of Russia, died of heart disease. Rumors of foul play are discredited.

—Negotiations have been reopened between Great Britain and Russia relative to the demarcation of the northern frontier of Afghanistan.

—The Sultan continues to consult Gen. Wallace, the American Minister, on the situation in Europe.

—The Prince of Wales and the Duke of Cambridge will subscribe toward the fund for sending a rifle team to America. There will be a final exhaustive test for the selection of the team shortly after the shooting at Wimbledon takes place.

De Long and Melville's Cigars.

The San Francisco Examiner says:—Just before the departure of the Rodgers in search of the Jeannette a number of friends of De Long and Melville, among them Major J. K. Duncan, of Vallejo, were with several of the Rodgers officers in the Occidental Hotel saloon, in San Francisco. Major Duncan bought two boxes of fine cigars, and placing his card inside each, directed one box to Lieutenant De Long and the other to Engineer Melville, placing them in care of Dr. Jones to be delivered in case the Jeannette people were found. After the burning of the Rodgers it was found that both boxes of cigars had been saved. When the men ran out of tobacco in the native villages, it was suggested to smoke the cigars, but Dr. Jones insisted that they should be saved, and they were brought back on the Corwin. Major Duncan now intends to forward both boxes with a brief history of their travels to Engineer Melville, determined that after traveling so far and waiting so long for him he shall at last enjoy them.

An old gentleman finding a couple of his nieces fencing with broomsticks, said: "Come, come, my dears, that kind of accomplishment will not help you in getting husbands." "I know it, uncle," responded one of the girls, as she gave a lunge, "but it will help us to keep our husbands in order when we have got 'em."

A WAG says of a toper: "His nose has passed the rubicund."

Force of Imagination.

THOUGHT HE HAD LOST A LEG.

During a recent lecture Dr. Noble vouched for the truth of the following anecdote of M. Boutibouse, a French savant, in illustration of the power of imagination: M. Boutibouse served in Napoleon's army, and was present at many engagements during the early part of the last century. At the battle of Wagram, in 1809, he was engaged in the fray; the ranks around him had been terribly thinned by shot, and at sunset he was nearly isolated. While reloading his musket he was shot down by a cannon ball. His impression was that the ball had passed through his legs below the knees, separating them from the thighs; for he suddenly sank down, shortened, as he believed, to the extent of about a foot in measurement. The trunk or the body fell backward on the ground, and the senses were completely paralyzed by the shock. Thus he lay motionless among the wounded and dead during the rest of the night, not daring to move a muscle lest the loss of blood should be fatally increased. He felt no pain; but this he attributed to the stunning effect of the shock to the brain and nervous system. At early dawn he was aroused by one of the medical staff, who came round to help the wounded.

"What's the matter with you, my good fellow?" said the surgeon.

"Ah! touch me tenderly," replied M. Boutibouse. "I beseech you; a cannon ball has carried off my legs."

The surgeon examined the limbs referred to, and then, giving him a good shake, said, with a joyous laugh:

"Get up with you; you have nothing the matter with you!"

M. Boutibouse immediately sprang up in utter astonishment, and stood firmly on the legs which he thought he had lost forever.

"I felt more thankful," said M. Boutibouse, "than I had ever done in the whole course of my life before. I had not a wound about me. I had, indeed, been shot down by an immense cannon ball; but instead of passing through my legs, as I firmly believed it had, the ball had passed under my feet, and had plowed a hole in the earth beneath at least a foot in depth, into which my feet suddenly sank, giving me the idea that I had been thus shortened by the loss of my legs.

PLENTY OF SALMON.—The Territorial Enterprise tells this wonderful fish story:—An Eastern paper sneers at the story that a horse found difficulty in fording a creek in Washington Territory on account of the crush of salmon going up stream coming with such force and so thick as to interfere with his footing. There is no exaggeration about this. In some of the smaller streams tributary to the Snake and Columbia the salmon, when going up, are so numerous that the weaker fish are crowded out on to the banks, and for miles the banks are strewn with dead fish thus thrown up. Less than fifteen years ago the Mormons used to dig salmon out of the streams with shovels in Idaho and ship so much of the salted fish to the Utah settlements that the article was as much of a drug on the market as the sorghum-cured grasshoppers, which were the cheapest and most plentiful.

GONE! Inflammatory rheumatism, cured by St. Jacobs Oil. Ira Brown.—Chicago Tribune.

WHEN a boy, standing on his head, looks at his feet, does he look up or down?

DELEVAN, Wis., Sept. 24, 1878.

GENTS—I have taken not quite one bottle of the Hop Bitters. I was a feeble old man of 78 when I got it. To-day I am as active and feel as well as I did at 30. I see a great many that need such a medicine. D. BOYCE.

THE first newspaper advertisement appeared in 1652.

Get the Original.

Dr. Pierce's "Pellets"—the original "Little Liver Pills" (sugar-coated)—cure sick and bilious headache, sour stomach, and bilious attacks. By druggists.

Travel makes all men countrymen, makes people noblemen and kings, every man tasting of liberty and dominion.—Alcott.

MARKET NOTES.

NEW YORK MARKET.

The Wholesale New York market quotations show:

BEANS—Prime, $3.50@$3.55; fair to good, $3.25@$3.45 per bushel.

BUTTER—New York sold at 26@26½c. for choice in pails, and 22@24c. common to good. Western sold at 25@25½c., and the common Western at 18@19c.

CHEESE—Factory fancy, 10½c.@10¾c; do. fair to good, 8@9c.

EGGS—Quotations ranged from 21c for ordinary, to 24c. for New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania.

FLOUR—Superfine, $3.80@$4.75; Western, $4.75@$5.60; extra New York, $4.75@$5.25.

HAY—Shipping, 55@65c.; clover, 40@65c.; salt, 65c.; straw, 35@40c.

HOPS—New York, 30@37c.; Eastern, 25@32c.; yearlings, 14@24c.; olds, 7@14c.

PETROLEUM—Refined, 7½c.; crude, 6¼@7c. in bulk; in barrels, 7½c.; naphtha, 6½c in shipping order, and 11½@12¾c. in cases.

PORK—New mess, ——@$22.50; dressed hogs, 11c.@11½c.

WHEAT—Spring No. 3, $1.20@1.43; Milwaukee, No. 2, $1.36; amber, $1.32@$1.40; white, $1.28½@$1.31.

RYE—State, —@83c.

WOOL—Ohio, Pennsylvania and Virginia, xxx, 45@46c.; xx, 42@45c.; x, 42@43c.; No. 1, 45@47c.; No. 2, 38@40c.; common, 33@35c.; New York and Western xx and x, 39@45½c.; No. 1, 44@45c.

PHILADELPHIA MARKET.

FLOUR—State family, $5.37½@$5.50; rye flour, $ —— @4.25; wheat, State, $1.43@$1.45; amber, $1.43; corn, yellow, 92c.; mixed State, 90c.

PETROLEUM—Refined, 7c.; crude, 6¼c.

WOOL—State and Western xx, 46@50c.; x, 47@48c.; medium, 50@51c.; coarse, 45c.

BOSTON MARKET.

FLOUR—From $3.50@$4.50 for low and medium, to $5.50@$7.50 for choice Minnesota. Corn, 88@89c. for mixed and yellow.

BUTTER — Common, 21@23c. Vermont dairy, 23@25c.; choice creamery, 25@26c.

CHEESE—10½@11c.

BEANS—$3.90@$4.00.

HAY—Choice, $21@$22.

CATTLE MARKETS.

BUFFALO — Cattle, good quality, $4.75@$6 30; hogs, fair to good, $3.40@$8.60; best, $8 85.

EAST LIBERTY, PENN.—Best cattle, $7.90@$8.35; medium to good, $7.00@$7.25; common to fair, $3.50@$5.75; Hogs, Yorkers, $8.20@$8.45; Philadelphias, $8.75@$9.00. Sheep, $4.75@$5.00.

WATERTOWN, MASS.—Cattle, choice, $11.25@$11.50; extra, $10.00@$10.75; first quality, $9.00@$9.50; second quality, $8.00@$8.50; third quality, $5.25@$5.75. Sheep and lambs —wool sheep, $2.50@$5.50; extra, $6.00@$6.50; spring lambs, 6½@7¾c. Veal calves, 3@7½c. 29

MAY the good work begun by St. Jacobs Oil continue until rheumatism and neuralgia have been banished from the earth.—Albany (N. Y.) Press and Knickerbocker.

"THE first and worst of all frauds is to cheat one's self," saith Philosopher Bailey. We don't doubt that; but then the money doesn't go out of the family.—New York Commercial Advertiser.

A Total Eclipse

Of all other medicines by Dr. R. V. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" is approaching. Unrivalled in bilious disorders, impure blood, and consumption, which is scrofulous disease of the lungs.

He that wrestles with us strengthens our nerves and sharpens our skill. Our antagonist is our helper.—Burke.

Saved From Death.

BALTIMORE, MD., Feb. 26, 1881.

H. H. WARNER & Co.: Sirs—Your Safe Kidney and Liver Cure has saved me from death from Bright's Disease. S. B. HEADINGTON.

Humility is to make a right estimate of one's self. It is no humility for a man to think less of himself than he ought, though it might rather puzzle him to do that.—Spurgeon.

What It Did for an Old Lady.

COSHOCTON STATION, N. Y., Dec. 28, 1878.

GENTS—A number of people had been using your Bitters here, and with marked effect. In one case, a lady of over seventy years had been sick for years, and for the past ten years has not been able to be around half the time. About six months ago she got so feeble she was helpless. Her old remedies, or physicians, being of no avail, I sent to Deposit, forty-five miles, and got a bottle of Hop Bitters. It improved her so she was able to dress herself and walk about the house. When she had taken the second bottle she was able to take care of her own room and walk out to her neighbor's, and has improved all the time since. My wife and children also have derived great benefit from their use. W. B. HATHAWAY, Agt. U. S. Ex. Co.

Confidence is that feeling by which the mind embarks in great and honorable courses with a sure hope and trust in itself.—Cicero.

YOUNG men or middle aged ones, suffering from nervous debility and kindred weaknesses should send three stamps for Part VII of World's Dispensary Dime Series of books. Address WORLD'S DISPENSARY MEDICAL ASSOCIATION, Buffalo, N. Y.

In life it is difficult to say who do the most mischief, enemies with the worst intentions, or friends with the best.—Bulwer-Lytton.

PURE COD-LIVER OIL, from selected livers, on the seashore, by Caswell, Hazard & Co., N. Y. Absolutely pure and sweet. Patients who have once taken it prefer it to all others. Physicians declare it superior to all other oils.

CHAPPED HANDS, face, pimples and rough skin cured by using Juniper Tar Soap, made by Caswell, Hazard & Co., New York.

We ought not to look back unless it is to derive useful lessons from past errors and for the purpose of profiting by dear bought experience.—George Washington.

SOLID men admire the beautiful, and this accounts in some measure for the thousands upon thousands of bottles of Carboline, the deodorized petroleum hair renewer and dressing which have been sold yearly since its invention by Messrs. Kennedy & Co., of Pittsburgh, Pa.

"Rough on Rats."

The thing desired found at last. Ask druggist for Rough on Rats. It clears out rats, mice, roaches, flies, bedbugs. 15c. boxes.

THE new circular of the Peekskill (N. Y.) Military Academy is a handsomely illustrated book of 60 pages. Col. Wright, the Principal, will send copies to all interested.

RESCUED FROM DEATH.

William J. Coughlin, of Somerville, Mass., says: In the fall of 1876 I was taken with BLEEDING OF THE LUNGS followed by a severe cough. I lost my appetite and flesh, and was confined to my bed. In 1877 I was admitted to the hospital. The doctors said I had a hole in my lung as big as a half-dollar. At one time a report went around that I was dead. I gave up hope, but a friend told me of DR. WILLIAM HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS. I got a bottle, when to my surprise, I commenced to feel better, and to-day I feel better than for three years past. I write this hoping every one afflicted with Diseased Lungs will take DR. WILLIAM HALL'S BALSAM, and be convinced that CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED. I can positively say it has done more good than all the other medicines I have taken since my sickness.

If afflicted with sore eyes, use Dr. Isaac Thompson's EYE WATER. Druggists sell it: 25c. a bottle.

Oamun's Prepared Cod Liver Oil and Lime. The best medicine for the Lungs. Sold by all Druggists. Depot, 13 7th ave New York.

FOR SPECIAL RATES for advertising in this paper apply to the publisher of the paper. U 29

It is the concurrent testimony of the public and the medical profession, that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is a medicine which achieves results speedily felt, thorough and benign. Beside rectifying liver disorder, it invigorates the feeble, conquers kidney and bladder complaints, and hastens the convalescence of those recovering from enfeebling diseases. Moreover it is the grand specific for fever and ague. For sale by Druggists and Dealers generally.

HETZEL ORGAN. New style, $75. Sold on the INSTALLMENT PLAN. Most elegant case. Best tone. Lowest price; easiest terms. FULLY WARRANTED. C. W. HETZEL, Bapiistown, N. J.

$200.00 REWARD!

Will be paid for the detection and conviction of any person selling or dealing in any bogus, counterfeit or imitation HOP BITTERS, especially Bitters, or preparations with the word HOP or HOPS in their name, or connected therewith, that is intended to mislead and cheat the public, or for any preparation put in any form pretending to be the same as HOP BITTERS. The genuine have cluster of GREEN HOPS (notice this) printed on the white label, and are the purest and best medicine on earth, especially for Kidney, Liver and Nervous Diseases. Beware of all others, and of all pretended formulas or recipes of HOP BITTERS published in papers, or for sale, as they are frauds and swindles. Whoever deals in any but the genuine will be prosecuted.

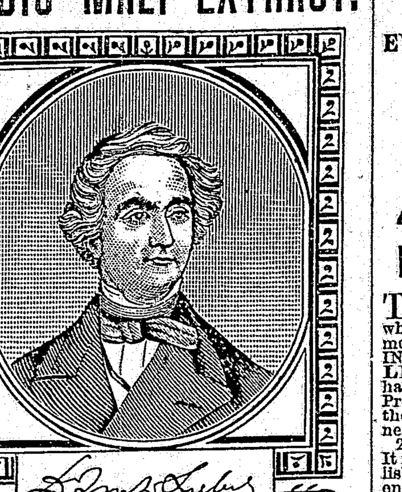

HOP BITTERS MFG. CO., Rochester, N. Y.

FRAZER AXLE GREASE.

Best in the world. Get the genuine. Every package has our trade-mark and is marked Frazer's. SOLD EVERYWHERE.

$66 a week in your own town. Terms and $5 outfit free. Address H. HALLETT & Co., Portland, Maine

LIEBIG MALT EXTRACT.

RECOMMENDED BY PHYSICIANS of the highest eminence on both sides of the Atlantic, as an invaluable Tonic and Restorative in cases of General Debility, Nervous Depression, Enfeebled Constitution and Female Weakness.

NURSING MOTHERS, who suffer from poverty of milk, will find it a specific for their troubles. It stimulates the digestion, sharpens the appetite, invigorates and builds up the entire system, and excites a generous flow of milk.

WEAK AND SICKLY CHILDREN, who suffer from lassitude and weariness, the result of disease, over-study, or nervous strain, will derive substantial benefit from its use. It restores the system to its normal condition and brings back the bloom of youth.

INVALIDS AND CONVALESCENTS will find it admirably adapted for sustaining life, and restoring lost strength. When the stomach is weak and refuses other nourishment the Extract will prove an excellent substitute for food. It neither palls upon the appetite nor offends the taste.

DELICATE FEMALES, who suffer from the weaknesses of their sex, will derive lasting relief from its use. It improves the digestion, purifies the blood, stimulates the appetite, and revives the spirits.

WEAK AND DELICATE PERSONS GENERALLY, who require some artificial restorative—and especially those who are inclined to Consumption—will find this preparation exactly suited to their needs. It is a specific for the Coughs and Nervous Affections usually incident to a low state of the system.

AS A FLESH RESTORER it possesses the highest value. The whole tendency of its action is to stimulate the digestion of fat-producing foods, and its effect is invariably to give fullness and roundness to the female form, and robustness to the masculine frame.

THE LIEBIG MALT EXTRACT is a pure concentrated Fluid Extract of Malt, agreeable to the taste, and free from alcohol. It is readily retained on the stomach and contains none but wholesome and nourishing ingredients. The genuine preparation bears on the label a fine engraved likeness of BARON VON LIEBIG, and a FAC-SIMILE of his Signature, as well as that of A. VOGELER & CO., BALTIMORE, MD., Sole Agents for America.

TEAS in abundance.—35 Million pounds imported last year.—Prices lower than ever.—Agents wanted.—Don't waste time.—Send for circular.
10 lbs. Good Black or Mixed, for $1.
10 lbs. Fine Black or Mixed, for $2.
10 lbs. Choice Black or Mixed, for $3.
Send for pound sample, 17 cts. extra for postage. Then get up a club. Choicest Tea in the world.—Largest variety.—Pleases everybody.—Oldest Tea House in America.—No chromo.—No Humbug.—Straight business.—Value for money.
ROB'T WELLS, 43 Vesey St., N.Y., P.O. Box 1287.

MUSIC FOR LESS THAN One Cent a Page, IN ELEGANT BOUND VOLUMES.

USEFUL AND INEXPENSIVE FOR THE SUMMER OF ALL GRADES AND STYLES OF SHEET MUSIC.

"GEMS OF ENGLISH SONG."
256 pages—over 80 choicest of songs.
"GEMS OF GERMAN SONG."
216 pages—100 of the best German songs.
"GEMS OF SCOTTISH SONG."
200 pages—over 150 best Scottish songs.
"BEAUTIES OF SACRED SONG."
208 pages—60 of the very best sacred songs.
"WORLD OF SONG."
248 pages—94 choice songs of popular style.
"FRANZ'S ALBUM OF SONG."
277 pages—107 of Franz's best songs.
"NORWAY MUSIC ALBUM."
260 pages—132 of Norway's songs, melodies, etc.
"GEMS OF STRAUSS."
248 pages—89 choicest Strauss waltzes, galops, etc.
"GEMS OF THE DANCE."
232 pages—80 most popular dance pieces.
And many other collections. Price each, $2 plain; $2.50 cloth; $3 full gilt.
OLIVER DITSON & CO., Boston.
C. H. Ditson & Co., 843 B'dway, New York.

GOOD NEWS TO LADIES!

THE GREAT AMERICAN TEA COMPANY

Get up Clubs for our CELEBRATED TEAS, and secure a beautiful "Moss Rose or Gold Band Tea Set," (44 pieces,) our own importation. One of these beautiful Tea Sets given away to the party sending a Club for $25.00. Beware of the so-called "CHEAP TEAS" that are being advertised—they are dangerous and detrimental to health—slow poison. Deal only with reliable Houses and with first hands if possible. No humbug.
The Great American Tea Co., Importers, P. O. Box 289. 31 & 33 VESEY ST., New York.

LAURIE & McCLATCHEY'S HOMŒOPATHIC DOMESTIC MEDICINE.

Ninth Edition. 1044 Pages. Large 8vo., well bound. Price $5.00. Sent free by Mail on receipt of Price.

This work gives a clear and concise description of diseases and their Homœopathic treatment. No Family should be without this Book and a Case of Medicines.

Send for descriptive catalogue.

Address: BOERICKE & TAFEL'S HOMŒOPATHIC PHARMACIES at New York, 145 Grand St.; Philadelphia, 1011 Arch St.; Baltimore, 135 West Fayette St.; New Orleans, 130 Canal st.; Chicago, 234 Wabash Av. The Oldest Homœopathic Medicine House in the U. S. Established in 1835.

AGENTS WANTED FOR THE PICTORIAL HISTORY OF THE WORLD

Embracing full and authentic accounts of every nation of ancient and modern times, and including a history of the rise and fall of the Greek and Roman Empires, the middle ages, the crusades, the feudal system, the reformation, the discovery and settlement of the New World, etc., etc.

It contains 672 fine historical engravings, and is the most complete History of the World ever published. Send for specimen pages and extra terms to Agents. Address NATIONAL PUBLISHING Co., Philadelphia, P

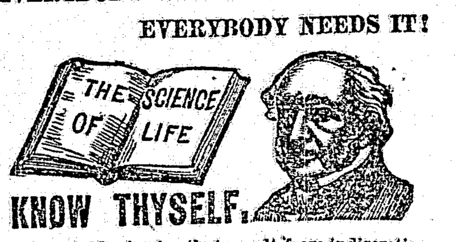

Agents Wanted for DAYS of the SON of MAN.

Dr. March's Great WORK Just Out.

The result of years of patient study and travel. A book to charm the young, delight the old, interest the student; a book for everybody. The style is elegant and forcible; the language pure and pleasing. Finely and appropriately illustrated, artistic binding. Commended by the press and clergy. Will sell on sight. A Rare Opportunity for Ladies, Ministers, Students, Teachers and others wanting paying employment. Address J. C. McCURDY & CO., Philadelphia, Pa.

ONE MILLION COPIES SOLD.

EVERYBODY WANTS IT! EVERYBODY NEEDS IT!

KNOW THYSELF.

THE untold miseries that result from indiscretion in early life may be alleviated and cured. Those who doubt this assertion should purchase the new medical work published by the PEABODY MEDICAL INSTITUTE, Boston, entitled THE SCIENCE OF LIFE; OR, SELF-PRESERVATION. Exhausted Vitality, Nervous and Physical Debility, Premature Decline in Man, or Vitality Impaired by the Errors of Youth, or too close application to business, may be restored and manhood regained.

258th edition, revised and enlarged, just published. It is a standard medical work, the best in the English language, written by a physician of great experience, to whom was awarded a gold and jeweled medal by the National Medical Association. It contains beautiful and very expensive engravings. 300 pages, more than 125 valuable prescriptions for all forms of diseases, acute and chronic, the result of many years of extensive and successful practice, either one of which is worth ten times the price of the book. Bound in beautiful French cloth, embossed, full gilt. Price only $1.25, by mail, postpaid, on receipt of price. Illustrated sample 6 cents. Send now!

THE SCIENCE OF LIFE; OR, SELF-PRESERVATION,

Is beyond all comparison the most extraordinary work on Physiology ever published. There is nothing whatever that the married or single can either require or wish to know but what is fully explained.—London Lancet.

THE SCIENCE OF LIFE; OR, SELF-PRESERVATION,

Is a marvel of art and beauty, warranted to be a better medical book in every sense than can be obtained elsewhere for double the price, or the money will be refunded in every instance.—Author.

N. B. YOUNG and MIDDLE AGED MEN can save much time, suffering and expense by reading the Science of Life, or conferring with the author, who may be consulted on all diseases requiring skill and experience. Address

PEABODY MEDICAL INSTITUTE, or W. H. PARKER, M. D., 4 Bulfinch Street, Boston, Mass.

Merchant's GARGLING OIL LINIMENT

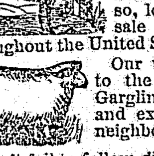

for human, fowl and animal flesh, was first prepared and introduced by Dr. Geo. W. Merchant, in Lockport N. Y., U. S. A., 1833, since which time it has steadily grown in public favor, and is now acknowledged and admitted by the trade to be the standard liniment of the country. When we make this announcement we do so without fear of contradiction, notwithstanding we are aware there are many who are more or less prejudiced against proprietary remedies especially on account of the many humbugs on the market; however, we are pleased to state that such prejudice does not exist against GARGLING OIL. We do not claim wonders or miracles for our liniment, but we do claim it is without an equal. It is put up in bottles of three sizes, and all we ask is that you give it a fair trial, remembering that the Oil put up with white wrapper (small) is for human and fowl flesh, and that with yellow wrapper (three sizes) for animal flesh. Try a bottle.

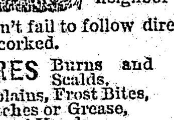

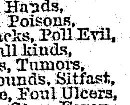

As these cuts indicate, the Oil is used successfully for all diseases of the human, fowl and animal flesh. Shake well before using.

Cannot be Disputed.

One of the principal reasons of the wonderful success of Merchant's Gargling Oil is that it is manufactured strictly on honor. Its proprietors do not, as is the case with too many, after making for their medicine a name, diminish its curative properties by using inferior compounds, but use the very best goods to be bought in the market, regardless of cost. For half a century Merchant's Gargling Oil has been a synonym for honesty, and will continue to be so, long as time endures. For sale by all respectable dealers throughout the United States and other countries.

Our testimonials date from 1833 to the present. Try Merchant's Gargling Oil Liniment for internal and external use, and tell your neighbor what good it has done.

Don't fail to follow directions. Keep the bottle well corked.

CURES Burns and Scalds,	Sprains and Bruises,
Chilblains, Frost Bites,	Stringhalt, Windgalls,
Scratches or Grease,	Foot Rot in Sheep,
Chapped Hands,	Foundered Feet,
External Poisons,	Roup in Poultry,
Sand Cracks, Poll Evil,	Sore Nipples, Curb,
Galls of all kinds,	Cracked Heels, Old Sores,
Swellings, Tumors,	Epizootic, Lame Back,
Flesh Wounds, Sitfast,	Hemorrhoids or Piles,
Ringbone, Foul Ulcers,	Toothache, Rheumatism,
Garget in Cows, Farcy,	Spavins, Sweeney,
Cracked Teats,	Corns, Whitlows,
Callous, Lameness,	Weakness of the Joints,
Horn Distemper,	Contraction of Muscles,
Crownscab, Quittor,	Cramps, Swelled Legs,
Abscess of the Udder,	Fistula, Mange, Thrush,
	Caked Breasts, Boils, &c.

$1,000 REWARD for proof of the existence of a better liniment than "Merchant's Gargling Oil," or a better worm medicine than "Merchant's Worm Tablets." Manufactured by M. G. O. Co., Lockport, N. Y., U. S. A.

JOHN HODGE, Sec'y.

USE NONE BUT THE BEST. THE GREAT FAMILY SOAP MAKER SAPONIFIER THE ORIGINAL CONCENTRATED LYE SOLD BY ALL GROCERS PENNA SALT MF'G CO. PHILA

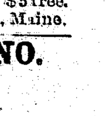

THRESHERS The Best is the cheapest. Illustrated price list free. THE AULTMAN & TAYLOR CO., Mansfield, O.

A BARGAIN.—Send three (3) dollars for one set (6 of each) beautiful Silver Plated Knives and Forks (medium size and good plate). Sent by mail, postage paid, to any part of the U. S. on receipt of price. E. FREEMONT (Lock Box 1340), Norwich, Ct

A KEY THAT WILL WIND ANY WATCH AND NOT WEAR OUT. SOLD by Watchmakers. By mail, 25 cts. Circulars FREE. J. S. BIRCH & CO., 38 Dey St., N.Y.

$72 A WEEK. $12 a day at home easily made. Costly Outfit free. Address TRUE & Co., Augusta, Maine

SIX CTS WHY WASTE MONEY! Young man or old. If you want a luxuriant moustache, flowing whiskers or a heavy growth of hair on bald heads, or to THICKEN, STRENGTHEN and INVIGORATE the HAIR anywhere don't be humbugged. Try the great Spanish discovery which has NEVER YET FAILED. Send ONLY SIX CENTS to Dr. J. GONZALEZ, Box 1849, Boston, Mass. Beware of all imitations.

$5 to $20 per day at home. Samples worth $5 free. Address STINSON & Co., Portland, Maine.

ITALY 1881. ESPOSIZIONE MUSICALE IN MILANO. Sotto il Patrocinio di S. M. la Regina, Palazzo Del R. Conservatorio.

AT THE GREAT ITALIAN MUSICAL EXPOSITION

Recently closed at Milan, was probably the MOST EXTRAORDINARY COLLECTION OF MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS, old and new, ever brought together; fully illustrating the great progress which has been made and present high excellence in this department of manufactures. After exhaustive examinations, tests and comparisons, extending through a period of several months, more than 250 Awards were made of medals and diplomas, in recognition of degrees of super-excellence attained in the various departments of musical art and manufacture. For REED INSTRUMENTS, including Organs and Harmoniums of all descriptions, European and American,

THE GRAND SILVER MEDAL, being the only highest award in this department, was conferred upon the

MASON & HAMLIN ORGANS.

Their manufacturers value this extraordinary distinction the more highly because of the importance of the occasion, especially as an INTERNATIONAL MUSICAL INDUSTRIAL COMPETITION IN A COUNTRY SO PRE-EMINENTLY MUSICAL. The Mason & Hamlin Organs were honored by especial exhibition before the Royal Court by Carlo Ducci of Rome, and warm commendation from their Majesties the King and Queen. At all the great WORLD'S INDUSTRIAL EXPOSITIONS for fourteen years these Organs have received the HIGHEST HONORS, being the only American Organs which have received such at any.

IMPROVEMENTS. During the year just closed this Company have introduced improvements of greater value than in any similar period since the introduction of the American Organ by them, twenty years since.

ELEGANT STYLES are now received from their factories daily, surpassing in capacity and excellence anything which has before been produced, and certainly worthy to be ranked with the VERY FINEST MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS IN THE WORLD. They are in cases of solid BLACK WALNUT, MAHOGANY, ASH, EBONIZED, etc., at net cash prices, $240, $330, $360, $390, $480, $570, $840 and $900.

POPULAR STYLES, including, also, the most valuable of the recent improvements, and adapted to all uses, public and private, in plain and elegant cases, are at $22, $30, $57, $66, $72, $84, $90, $93, $99, $102, $105 to $200 and up.

EASY PAYMENTS. These organs are sold for cash or easy payments, or will be rented until rent pays for an organ.

A NEW ILLUSTRATED CATALOGUE, just issued, fully describing and illustrating MORE THAN ONE HUNDRED STYLES OF ORGANS, with net PRICE LISTS and circulars, will be sent free to any one desiring them. Certainly no one should buy or rent any organ without having seen these circulars, which contain much useful information about organs.

MASON & HAMLIN ORGAN AND PIANO CO.,

154 Tremont Street, BOSTON; 46 East 14th Street (Union Sq.), NEW YORK; 149 Wabash Avenue, CHICAGO.

VOL. XIII.

THE LAND OF THE L

"I'm wearin' awa', Jean,
Like snaw when its thaw, Jean,
I'm wearin' awa'
To the Land o' the Leal.

There's nae sorrow there, Jean,
There's neither cauld nor care, J
The day is aye fair
In the Land o' the Leal.

Ye were aye leal and true, Jean,
Your task's now noo, Jean,
And I'll welcome you
To the Land o' the Leal.

Our bonnie bairn's there, Jean,
She was baith gude and fair, Jean
O, we grudged her right sair
To the Land o' the Leal.

Now fare ye well, my ain, Jean,
This warld o' care is vain, Jean,
We'll meet and aye be fain
In the Land o' the Leal.

LADY N

CAYENNE PEPPER.

[From the Youth's Companion.

A good many pranks had been in Miss Benson's school at one ti another, but that which astonishe teacher and scholars more than others, was played on a certain noon in the late autumn.

If Bert Sherman had not be most roguish boy in school, perh would not have been held to suc account for what had been done.

But the next morning at rece was summoned to the teacher's d

"I didn't do it!" he said, i defense, before the teacher had t ask a question. For he kne enough what was coming.

"Don't you know it is wicked a lie?" asked Miss Benson, in a tone.

"Yes'm," answered Bert, lo down at his worn copper toes, a tling marbles, slate-pencils an knives in his pocket.

"I am sorry, Bert," said Mis son, still more severely, yet with gestion of tears in her eyes; " thought you were above a lie"—

"I am!" said Bert, drawing h up proudly and looking angrily teacher.

Miss Benson was puzzled; b Bert dropped his head again, she tinued, sadly:

"If I had not had faith in your fulness—for this is the first tim have ever denied my accusations if it had not been for your mother works so hard to support you, I s have expelled you long ago. Bu time there is no doubt about your You were the only one in the roo before the last session yesterday had begged for a holiday to go n and had been refused, and you d I hear, after you had succeed breaking up the school. I coul give it all, if you had owned up ably. But this deliberate untruth

"I didn't tell a lie!" Bert a shouted.

"This is getting worse and w continued Miss Benson, quietly. set the whole school sneezing wit pepper, so that the session had broken up, was bad enough. B tell a"—

"I didn't! I didn't! I didn't!" Bert, in fierce, quiet tones; he wa much excited to speak loud.

His blue eyes flashed, his hands clinched. He looked as if he fight the accusation to the death.

"I saw you come out of the roo before the bell rung," said Miss son, in a voice of settled convi "There was no one else in the r Therefore, you must have do Take your stand in the middle o room, and when you go home this tell your mother you are dismissed the school."

"It will break her heart!" said with a very white face. "An' means me to be a doctor! Oh, Benson, don't turn me out of sch he pleaded. "I know I've been ba have cut up capers without end. them in barring you out, an' I sto the stove chimney so that the filled with smoke, an' I put the net Tab's face that day she flew wild the room, an' I made the picture o on the board, an' I put the cob wax on the seats, an' I did every prank you ever accused me of; didn't tie up cayenne pepper in rags an' set 'em smouldering all the room, so that you an' all us sch would sneeze ourselves to death al an' we'd have to have a holiday."

He paused for want of breath, after a moment he went on.

"I did go for nuts, but I didn that trick to get off. I didn't den tricks afore, an' I wouldn't this tim

Miss Benson leaned back in her and regarded the boy critically, th there was a twitching about her lip

"You see, Bert," she said, very q ly, "one bad boy will demoraliz whole school, and for the sake o others you must go. I've been pa with you, Bert. Have I not?" asked.

"Yes'm," said Bert, with his eye the copper toes.

"And you understand that one can set a whole school wrong?"

"Yes'm."

"And you have continually been ting yourself and others into mischi

"Yes'm."

"You are one of my brightest bo continued Miss Benson; "and I k that the boys who have most life who are therefore apt to get into mischief often turn out to be our best and most capable men. And have thought that you might some become a successful man, if I could